Dear Mr. Kelley:

As you are aware we just finished our first inspection under the new procedure. There is no question, it is by far more effective, realistic and productive than the "old" routine.

Instead of making an issue of form errors it provides Headquarters and the SAC a realistic picture of the overall operation and procedures of the Division and is extremely effective in furnishing us information concerning our manpower needs, and problems. Glad you and some of our other leaders at the Bureau had enough foresight to initiate these new proceedings.

I might add [redacted] and Roger Young both did an excellent job as your representatives.

Sincerely,

The Director instructed that it be determined if there is any indication that the Department of Justice is pursuing an inquiry into the conduct of SAC Gunderson while he was ASAC in New Haven in regard to a civil suit alleging improprieties in conjunction with the investigation of the Black Panther Party.

A review of SAC Gunderson's personnel file and contact with Deputy Assistant Director Thomas M. Johnson, Office of Professional Responsibility, reveals that the Department has not undertaken any criminal investigation concerning this matter and apparently has no intention to do so due to the ambiguities of the allegations and the statute of limitations. Mr. Johnson's letter to Mr. Shaheen of the Department dated July 7, 1977, sets forth the Bureau's position in regard to this matter. (copy attached)

Inquiry with Deputy Assistant Director James Farrington, Legal Counsel Division, determined that SAC Gunderson has not been subpoenaed to testify before the New Haven Police Board nor has he been deposed by any party to the hearings being conducted by the Board. However, SAC Gunderson is a party in his official capacity and as an individual to the civil suit filed by ACLU attorneys in U. S. District Court of the District of Connecticut. SAC Gunderson has categorically denied the knowledge of wiretapping by the New Haven police or ever having been in the particular location while the alleged wiretapping was taking place or where there was any equipment which was being used for wiretapping. SAC Gunderson's teletype to the Director and New Haven dated June 29, 1977 (attached) sets forth his denial of any specific knowledge of illegal wiretapping by the New Haven Police.

That SAC Theodore L. Gunderson, Dallas Office, be transferred to the Los Angeles Office and designated Assistant Director in Charge of that Office at no change in grade or salary at this time.

approved - To be designated as Senior Special Agent in Charge - AD designation to be dropped -

DETAILS: ADIC, Los Angeles Office has submitted his application for retirement to be effective 9/23/77, and it is necessary to replace him.

It is being recommended that SAC Theodore L. Gunderson, Dallas Office, be transferred to Los Angeles and designated ADIC. SAC Gunderson and SAC, Detroit Robert E. Kent, were both considered for this position. Deputy Associate Directors Adams and McDermott both felt that SACs Gunderson and Kent were fully qualified for the position. Mr. McDermott recommended SAC Kent as first choice and SAC Gunderson as second; Mr. Adams felt they were equally qualified. I feel both are fully qualified but that SAC Gunderson is somewhat better qualified due to greater experience as ASAC and SAC. SAC Gunderson received outstanding performance ratings for the past three years, and during inspection of the Dallas Office (4/25-5/11/77) his administration of the Dallas Office was found to be exemplary. Dear Ted:

I join your great host of friends in Texas on expressing regret that you are leaving Dallas, for a nice promotion to Senior Special Agent In Charge F.B.I., Los Angeles.

I want to specifically thank you for the very fine cooperation and day to day assistance we have enjoyed in NATB from working with your personnel.

Additionally, I personally am indebted to you for the wonderful support and assistance you gave me in our mutual endeavors in the Texas Police Association.

We dislike seeing you "move on" for personal reasons, but we recognize the importance of the future both to you and the F.B.I.

You are being "promoted" now and I'm sure you will be again and again.

Congratulations and very best wishes.

Dear Ted:

As a former U.S. Attorney who is on the other side of the docket, I look on your leaving to go to Los Angeles with mixed emotions. I know that it is a promotion, but I feel a personal loss and a loss to law enforcement in this area because of your transfer.

In the short period of time that you have been in Dallas, you have made a number of significant cases and contributions to Texas law enforcement.

It was a pleasure working with you as well as on the other side of the docket. I hope that we cross in the future and if you are ever in Fort Worth, I shall be disappointed if you don't drop by for coffee!

Dear Mr. Kelley:

Ted L. Gunderson

[redacted] a personal friend and [redacted]
[redacted] of the Liberty Bowl Annual Football
Classic, Memphis, Tennessee, called me on August 30, 1977, and mentioned he had heard of my transfer to Los Angeles, California. [redacted] asked if it would be possible for me to be the Liberty Bowl representative with the Pac-8
Conference. The position does not involve any remunerations, but is honorary in nature. As the Liberty Bowl Pac-8 representative, I would attend football games on occasion and incidental to this would meet and talk with presidents of these schools, the athletic directors, coaches and other school officials. I would not indicate to the school officials any preferences on the part of the Liberty Bowl in choosing one school over another for the annual classic, but would merely operate in a public relations capacity and report my opinions back to the Liberty Bowl on a confidential basis concerning the performance of the football teams in that conference. I would not in any way be involved in a controversial situation or problem.

b6

I am sure it would generally be known I am in charge of the Los Angeles Office and I would be able to make numerous which would be of benefit to the FBI from a public-relations standpoint.

I can see no reason to preclude my accepting this offer. Because of the potential overall benefits the FBI could receive, I recommend approval be given for my participation in this capacity.

Dear [Redacted]

Thank you for your letter concerning Ted Gunderson who, although doing a good job in Dallas, I thought could do a greater service as Special Agent in Charge of Los Angeles. You will find that Jim Abbott is a fine person and I am confident he will be able to serve well in his new capacity. He assisted me here in Washington on one very sensitive investigation and proved his worth as far as I am concerned.

Please give my regards to [Redacted] and I are planning on being at the convention and hopefully we will have the opportunity to see you both.

You were kind in mentioning my tour of duty so favorably and I join with you in the feeling that Judge Johnson will probably maintain a high degree of performance so needed by the Bureau.

Dear Clarence:

Re: Theodore L. Gunderson
Special Agent in Charge, Dallas

Although we were all delighted to learn of Ted Gunderson's fine recognition in being transferred to Los Angeles, all of us who have had the privilege of knowing him here will miss him very much. Ted has done an outstanding job in both law enforcement and civil involvement and has gained many friends for the Bureau at a time, I think all of us will agree, we needed. We will look forward to assisting James A. Abbott when he arrives here in "Big D."

[redacted] joins me in sending our best wishes to you and Mrs. Kelley and hope that we get to see you both in Kansas City in late September. I am sure that in many ways you are looking forward to less rigorous days ahead.

Again, I would like to express my thanks for the tremendous leadership you have exerted during your tour as Director and wish for you the best of success, good health and pleasant living in the days ahead.

I have never had the pleasure of meeting Judge Johnson, the Director designate, but hope that all of us can continue to maintain the same degree of interest in the Bureau in the days ahead that we enjoyed in the past.

Sincerely,

PURPOSE:

To respond to the Director's request that this matter be researched and that he be advised.

SYNOPSIS AND DETAILS:

[Handwritten: XEROX]
AUG 28 1979

On September 9, 1977, Associate Director Held referred to me the attached letter sent by SAC Gunderson to the Director dated September 2, 1977. The Director noted on SAC Gunderson's letter, "Research and advise please - I feel he would have to be gone quite a bit and doubt the advisability."

The Director's inquiry requires a consideration of questions of ethics, Bureau policy, and law. The ethical question is whether an SAC should enter into an arrangement whereby he will benefit personally and directly and there is potential that FBI jurisdiction could involve him in an investigation of the activity in which he plays a contributing role. One difficulty in making a judgment in that regard is estimating the probability that the FBI would investigate some aspect of the activity. In this instance, there appears to be potential investigative jurisdiction in 18 USC 224 "Bribery in Sporting Contests" and 18 USC 1084 "Inter-state Transportation of Wagering Information." The Director may want to discuss this concern with the SAC before making his decision whether to approve participation in the activity by the SAC.

The Bureau policy question is whether the arrangement is sufficiently beneficial to the FBI to justify allowing the SAC to undertake the activity during working hours or to limit his availability during nonworking hours. To aid him

Memo Legal Counsel to the Director
Re: Proposed Service by SAC Ted L. Gunderson as
Liberty Bowl Pac-8 Representative

in considering this balance, the Director may want to have the SAC specify the amounts of time to be spent and the working hours that will be involved.

The legal question concerns the conflict of interest law, 18 USC 208 and the Attorney General's regulations, 28 CFR, Part 45 "Standards of Conduct." A criminal conflict of interest could occur if the SAC becomes involved in an FBI investigation in a particular matter which, to his knowledge, he has a financial interest or an organization with whom he is negotiating or has any arrangement concerning prospective employment as a financial interest. Should an FBI investigation begin involving the Conference, the teams, coaches, or other personnel of the Liberty Bowl, the SAC would have to consider disqualifying himself from acting as SAC in that investigation in order to avoid possible violation of the statute. This consideration does not present a legal bar to the SAC from accepting the position but it is a factor that should be known to the Director and understood by the SAC in making the decision.

The Attorney General's regulations generally prohibit acceptance of gifts, entertainment, and favors and similar gratuities from one whose interests may be substantially affected by the performance or nonperformance of the employee's official duty. However, exceptions are provided to allow acceptance of lunches or dinners of nominal value on infrequent occasions, acceptance of unsolicited promotional material of nominal intrinsic value, and receipt of reimbursement for actual expenses for travel and subsistence for which no Government payment or reimbursement is made. In this last exception, there is a limitation that prohibits an employee from accepting "excessive personal living expenses, gifts, entertainment or other personal benefits." In view of the detailed statements in these regulations, the Director may wish to consider a full statement of the gratuities to be received by the SAC in making his decision.

Finally, the Director's note indicated his concern that the SAC "would have to be gone quite a bit and doubt the advisability." There is attached a list of the teams in the Pac-8, their locations, and the 1977 game schedule. The list indicates that two teams are located in Los Angeles and that their home games from September 30 would afford an opportunity to see all of the other Conference teams

Re: Proposed Service by SAC Ted L. Gunderson as
Liberty Bowl Pac-8 Representative

at least once. The Director may wish to consider whether the SAC's participation may be limited to Los Angeles or whether he might be required to travel to other places in order to see the other teams.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the Director consider the several factors described in making his decision.

Dear Mr. Kelly:

Members of the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation recently concluded an in depth survey for Braniff in the area of baggage losses as part of the Bureau's Crime Resistance Program.

As a result, I offer my personal congratulations to Special Agent in Charge, Ted Gunderson, and to Special Agent, [redacted] for a most intelligent, beneficial and comprehensive report. We believe that through the use of the material we should be able to substantially reduce our baggage losses. And although the survey was made on behalf of Braniff we further believe it will benefit the entire industry. Therefore, we will make it available to the industry.

Dear Ted:

I appreciate your letter of October 12th and was pleased to see that you followed up by a call to Chief [redacted] I recently talked with a friend of mine named [redacted] who incidentally met you outside the "LA Times" building on the day we made our call there, and he said that he had been queried considerably by [redacted] and his staff about the means whereby a police department can be evaluated. [redacted] is a writer who on occasion writes for the Times and specializes in law enforcement matters. Apparently the "LA Times" is planning on making a strong review of the department, but did not have the background to determine just how they should proceed.

SUBJECT: ALLEGATION OF POSSIBLE MISCONDUCT
INVOLVING SPECIAL AGENT IN CHARGE (SAC)
THEODORE L. GUNDERSON, LOS ANGELES
OFFICE

PURPOSE:

To advise details set forth in Minneapolis teletype to FBIHQ dated 3/15/78 which contains non-specific allegations of possible misconduct regarding SAC Theodore L. Gunderson, Los Angeles Office.

Biamonte
DONALDSON

DETAILS:

In referenced airtel received at FBIHQ early morning of 3/16/78 Minneapolis Office advised that during investigation into an extortion - interstate obscene or harassing telephone call case entitled [redacted] - Victim; "allegations of possible misconduct on the part of SAC Gunderson were disclosed. [redacted] a resident of Minneapolis, Minnesota, personally appeared at the Minneapolis FBI Office on 1/3/78 and advised her [redacted] Margaret Spadaro, wife of the subject, was found shot to death on 11/26/77 at the Spadaro's residence in [redacted] California. Local authorities investigated the death and ruled suicide. [redacted] continued that approximately two weeks after the death, she began receiving long-distance telephone calls from the subject who insisted he should receive his wife's expected inheritance now. [redacted] allegedly advised victim [redacted] that if she was not included in the will, she would not live long and she considered this a threat on her life. The facts of this extortionate matter were discussed with Assistant U. S. Attorney, Minneapolis, who advised that although the extortion case was extremely weak at this point, he was of the opinion further investigation was warranted. Based upon the Assistant U. S. Attorney's opinion, a recorder was installed on the victim's telephone with victim's consent on 1/9/78 to monitor calls; however, no specific threats were intercepted. This recording device was removed on 2/10/78.

Made a fool of himself with the girl. Lonely - crying." Further on in the notes of the same day, 1/19/78, it was noted "FBI carried 38s and FBI head Gunderson talked about it with him. Toward the end of November, 1977, I received a phone call from an individual who identified himself as [REDACTED], California. He said he was a [REDACTED] in the Washington, D. C. area, and one of his students was Mr. BUCK REVELL, FBI Headquarters. [REDACTED] claimed he was a close personal friend of REVELL, and REVELL told him to call me on his arrival in California. [REDACTED] was very cordial, polite, and advised sometime over the Christmas holidays he and his wife would like to have me for dinner. I stated I would be more than pleased to accept his invitation.

The first part of January, 1978, I received a second phone call from [REDACTED]. He sounded depressed and subsequently volunteered his wife had died unexpectedly over the holiday season, which was the reason he did not extend the invitation. I asked if there was anything I could do, and he replied he would enjoy having dinner some evening. I informed him because of his tragedy it would probably be good therapy if I arranged for a female escort. A lady whom I am dating arranged for one of her friends to join us, and the four of us had dinner. This was the first time I had ever met him. Naturally during the course of our conversation various aspects of each of our lives were discussed, but there was no conversation of a personal nature. He mentioned he may have to move from his apartment, and I advised him if he needed a place to stay in an emergency he would be more than welcome to stay at my condominium until he could find suitable living accommodations.

I have not seen him since that evening. However, approximately three weeks ago he called and asked for the name of an attorney in the Long Beach area. At that time he stated [REDACTED] Long Beach, where he was [REDACTED] had dismissed him without adequate cause and he planned to sue. I provided him with the names of three attorneys who have excellent reputations in the Long Beach area, but advised I would not recommend anyone in particular.

Re Bureau airtel 3/9/78, and Bureau teletype 4/28/78.

In accordance with referenced communications, my rating period is 10/1/77 - 3/31/78.

My overall responsibilities include general administration of the Division, daily supervision of major investigations, and coordination of, as well as active personal participation in, programs of public addresses, law enforcement relations, and public relations. I make final determinations within the Division on matters relating to personnel, policy, procedure, and/or administrative changes. These responsibilities evolve in the Bureau's second-largest Field Office, which operates with an annual budget of approximately $21½ million and encompasses a jurisdictional population in excess of 14 million, with 14 resident agencies, 228 clerical and support personnel, and approximately 450 Special Agents which includes four SACs and 25 supervisors. Prior to my transfer to Los Angeles in September, 1977, I performed the same duties as Special Agent in Charge of the Dallas Division.

During instant rating period, my voluntary overtime averaged three hours and 47 minutes per day. I delivered 14 public addresses, made 61 radio appearances and 1920 television appearances. My public addresses were delivered before such groups as the Federal Bar Association, the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce, the American Airlines Management Association, and various chapters of the Society of Former Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. My radio appearances included interviews, discussions, and commentaries on virtually every radio station in the Los Angeles basin; at least two were aired on national networks. My television appearances have ranged from such area-popular TV shows as the SAM YORTY and MICHAEL JACKSON Shows to interview by ROY NEAL, NBC, which was broadcast nationally. Additionally, I have participated in numerous public appearances such as press conferences, panel discussions, and service organization meetings. I have exerted a tremendous effort, via a variety of channels, to counteract locally adverse publicity the Bureau has recently received from the media. My efforts have extended from numerous supervisory and all-Agent conferences to direct contact with the media itself. The response has been impressively favorable, in terms of both numbers and the supportive and complimentary nature of messages received. I have personally responded to all such messages. In addition to various lesser honors, I was recipient of the Southern California Law Enforcement Man of the Year Award for 1977, presented by the AFL-CIO Metal Trades Council of Southern California.

I have further coordinated successful efforts toward creation and implementation of an FBI/DEA Task Force, now functional, and a joint effort with the Office of the U. S. Attorney to delineate viable and specific prosecutive guidelines, also presently operational.

A sampling of typical investigations which I have actively supervised during the rating period includes:

1. The most successful anti-fencing operation in the nation's history, with 256 federal arrests and savings/recoveries exceeding 42 million dollars.
2. An undercover pornography/extortion investigation with indictments of five major organized crime figures and considerable national publicity.
3. Apprehension and arrest of [redacted] (as an FPC case) in cooperation with [redacted] culminating a three-year investigation of British fraud losses estimated at $250,000,000. RW
4. Apprehension and arrest of five (two in Los Angeles, three in Houston) Weather Underground fugitives, culminating a seven-month investigation by Los Angeles.

Last week a KPOL Commentary cited the arraignment of three former FBI officials, and the quiet vigil of support by 1,000 Special Agents of the FBI in Washington, D. C.

KPOL noted these activities took place on Hitler's birthday; compared statements of FBI Agents to those of Hitler's SS troops; and mentioned Hitler executed six million Jews.

In addition to executing six million Jews, Adolph Hitler inaugurated World War II with his 1939 invasion of Poland, established the Nazi Party, became an absolute dictator, dehumanized his followers, condemned thousands of women and children to death, hated religion, and -- in a word -- became a curse to decent people everywhere. His bloody SS troops were notorious for having neither fear nor compassion. His concentration camps were rampant with torture, murder, and corruption.

KPOL's comparison by innuendo of Hitler and his SS troops to the FBI is unbelievable.

It is degrading to KPOL as well as the FBI.

It is unworthy of rebuttal.

TED L. GUNDERSON
Special Agent in Charge

Los Angeles County SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

NEWS RELEASE

INFORMATION BUREAU • 974-4211 • 24 HOURS A DAY

OPERATION "TARPIT"

256 persons have been arrested in the most successful anti-fencing operation in the nation's history. A combined force of Los Angeles County Sheriff's Deputies and agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation have been cooperating in the operation since July 1, 1976. To date, they have saved and recovered property and contraband worth over 42 million dollars.

Those arrested face both local and federal charges for receiving stolen property and interstate transportation of stolen property. Other arrests made as a result of the lengthy investigations included robbery, grand theft and sales of narcotics.

Details of the long and complicated operation were discussed during a news conference today at the Hall of Justice. Ted L. Gunderson, Senior Special Agent in charge of the Los Angeles Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess said that they expect more arrests to be made as more cases are concluded.

Sheriff Pitchess attributed the success of the operation to "an effective use of skilled undercover personnel from participating agencies, a sensible use of reliable informants and a sharing of information developed by all law enforcement agencies. It was a 'joint venture' in every sense of the word.

"We think we have injected one monstrous note of uncertainty into everyone who engages in the 'fencing' business. To keep them nervous, we should add that we expect the arrest figures to rise to close to 300.

"We were able to mount the operation through the assistance of Mr. James Golden, Director of the Enforcement Division of the LEAA, whose agency provided a $450,000.00 grant.

"To appreciate how successful we have been, there were 47 similar operations in 35 cities throughout the country in recent years. These operations netted, collectively, almost 74 million dollars. This single operation accounts for an additional 42 million in savings and recoveries bringing LEAA's national program total to 116 million dollars.

Sheriff Pitchess and Senior Special Agent Gunderson also indicated that beneficial side-effects develop from such an effective operation. Many active "fences" restrict or stop operations, causing burglars and thieves to take more risks in disposing of their stolen property--frequently increasing their chances of arrest. Also, the undercover officers develop extensive information on a multitude of illegal activities that is passed on to other law enforcement agencies to act upon.

Executive Vice President and Editor
Los Angeles Times
Times Mirror Square
Los Angeles, CA 90012

Dear Mr. Thomas:

On January 13, 1978, your newspaper printed an editorial entitled "The Corruption of J. Edgar Hoover." In that editorial you underscored your membership in a small parade of those given to denigrating the dead and disrespecting the civil rights of Special Agents of the FBI. One particularly offensive line referred to the FBI's grim chronicle of illicit spying, burglaries and other violations of civil liberties."

On April 18, 1978, the Times printed another editorial, this one headlined "Propriety, Not Politics." There was a familiar and unpleasant echo in the reference to the FBI's "long chronicle of illegal spying, mail openings and other violations of civil liberties." The latter editorial added, "The record is too thoroughly documented to be disputed."

The matters to which your editorials make reference are indeed under dispute. "Indictment" and "conviction" are not interchangeable terms; and no FBI Agent has ever been convicted of illicit spying, illegal burglaries, or violations of anybody's civil liberties. A respected metropolitan newspaper with the circulation of the Times has the responsibility, perhaps more than anyone else, to speak truthfully and to preserve the civil liberties of the accused by assuming innocence until and unless guilt is legally established. FBI Agents are entitled to justice, too.

Your unfortunate and repetitious printing of opinion as fact may be satisfying to some in beleaguering the Federal Bureau of Investigation, but it does considerable damage to present efforts to clarify legal issues. If the FBI's investigative reporting system allowed for capricious reflection of unsubstantiated allegations similar to those in your two editorials, the jails of this country would be filled with innocent persons.

These editorials also do a disservice to three men accused of conspiring against the Weather Underground, terrorists and bombers who respect the civil liberties of nobody.

A line from another writer in another newspaper:
How the enemies of this country must be celebrating today.

FBI Chief Here Advocates New Rules On Wiretapping

Theodore L. (Ted) Gunderson is special agent in charge of the FBI office in Los Angeles. The 27-year bureau veteran supervises the activities of 500 agents in seven Southern California counties. He was interviewed by staff writer Gerry Wilson.

Question: On April 10th former FBI director, L. Patrick Gray III, and two retired FBI officials were indicted on charges of civil rights violations for ordering surreptitious break-ins during a bureau search for members of the radical Weather Underground. What was your reaction to these indictments?

Gunderson: A: Well, off course, I cannot make any statements because this is our system. This is the way we operate. The attorney general of the United States and the Department of Justice feel, based on an analysis of the situation, that there has been a possible violation of the federal law by top FBI officials. It was presented to the grand jury and the grand jury indicted them.

Q: Does this disturb you?

A: I'm not going to say whether it's right or wrong at this point. I do feel that we do need these techniques against this element of society. But I think that there is an interesting point here. These men were using the techniques of wiretap, surreptitious entry and mail openings to protect society against an element that was trying to destroy our society basically. I'm not going to say in this case it's necessarily true because the case has not been adjudicated yet. But it's interesting that we are not being allowed to use it against an element that's trying to destroy the very document (the Constitution) that they are standing behind.

Q: Almost 70 other FBI agents and officials also face some disciplinary action for taking part in surreptitious entries, mail openings and unauthorized wiretaps or failing to respond fully to questions about these methods.

A: Well, let me say this, the full details are not available to me and I had nothing to do with the administrative inquiry into the matter or the investigation or the allegations and I don't think I'm in a position to really comment on it. But as I said I do feel that we need these techniques and I think that somebody should give us authority to use them. (But) there is another point I would like to make. Mr. Mark Felt (who was No. 2 man under Gray and one of those indicted) was on TV and he pointed out that there was no criminal intent on the part of our people when they use these techniques, which I think is pretty significant. So this will probably be their defense.

Q: You said "someone" should give the FBI the authority to use these techniques. Who do you feel, should give you this authority? Congress?

A: About 85 percent of our work is handled through statutes passed by Congress. Congress says, if you have these elements it's a federal violation and the FBI investigates. Now in the domestic security area Congress has never said to us; all right, these are the elements you investigate under these circumstances and you have the authority to do or use certain techniques. So we have set up our own guidelines with the approval of the Department of Justice. We have used these techniques (wiretaps, surreptitious entries, mail openings) against this element of society which advocates the overthrow of the government of terrorist acts.

Q: Then you believe that Congress has, perhaps, fallen down on the job when it comes to providing the FBI with firm guidelines on operating procedures?

A: I'll tell you very frankly that I think Congress has stumbled and fumbled and failed to give us the leadership we've needed. There are some members of Congress who I'm sure would like to have given us this authority but Congress, very frankly, has dragged its feet for years. We had the post-Watergate investigations and, in fact, at one time 10 of them (congressional Committees) were investigating us. As an outgrowth of these investigations, we still have not been given statutes which would give us the authority to use these techniques or tell us when we can or cannot use them. The matter is now being studied by the Senate Intelligence Committee, which I understand will set up guidelines in this area. Whether or not it's adequate, I don't know. We'll have to have a wait-and-see attitude in that regard.

Q: How do you determine who should be put under surveillance?

A: Well, you have two areas here. Let's talk about pre-Watergate area and then the post-Watergate area. Prior to Watergate, if an individual advocated the overthrow of the government or voiced an expression of violence against society or belonged to an organization that did, we could investigate them with limited restrictions. We checked them out and then if as a result of our investigation they really were not considered violent elements we closed them (the investigations). If they continued to attend meetings of groups that advocated the overthrow of the government, we would convert it to full-scale.

Q: And now?

A: Right now, the criteria for investigating an individual is still in two categories. They advocate the overthrow of the government or, two, they advocate violence against society or they belong to these groups. But they just about now have to be involved in an overt act before we can investigate them which cuts down considerably in our potential for developing intelligence information.

Q: So has the FBI cutback its number of investigations?

A: In June of 1973 we had over 2,000 individuals under investigation in the domestic intelligence security field. As of June of 1977 we had 946. In 1974 we had 154 organizations under investigation and June of 1977 we had 17 under investigation, so we have dropped back considerably in our investigative thrust against this element. I would have to say maybe there was a little overreaction in the past, maybe we were a little overzealous, overaggressive.

Q: Along the same lines, you've said in the past that J. Edgar Hoover was perhaps overzealous in his dealings with Martin Luther King and his movement. Did Hoover outlive his effectiveness?

A: I think Mr. Hoover was a great American, one of the great men of our time. I've told the press that. He was a man of extremely strong principles and dedication and a man who thoroughly believed in our democratic system in spite of some of the criticism you may have heard. He was director of the FBI for 48 years. I frankly think that in his later years, although he was effective in his own best interest, it would have been better if he had resigned maybe three or four years prior to his death.

Q: The present FBI director, William H. Webster, was a federal judge in St. Louis before his appointment. Do you have any objection to a non-FBI man heading the bureau?

A: Not if he's capable, qualified, honest and dedicated, a man of strong principle and character and has the experience to handle the job — I don't care who takes it. We do need good leadership. If he falls in these categories then we're all for him and we'll back him 110 percent.

Q: What are your impressions of Webster so far?

A: I'm impressed. I think he looks like a real solid individual.

Q: Has he made any noticeable changes in policy?

A: No. I think it's too early for policy to change. Besides, I think Mr. Kelley (Webster's predecessor) had made a number of changes in our internal structure, and policy to streamline our operation. I think that Mr. Webster will probably continue along the same lines. I don't anticipate any great changes.

Q: Has morale fallen among FBI personnel in the post-Watergate years?

A: The morale of the men and women at the FBI is very high. I've never seen a morale problem in my 27 years in the FBI in spite of all the criticism, that has been directed at us in the last five years. We are on occasion perturbed because a vast majority of it, I'd say ninety-five percent of the criticism that has been leveled at us is unsubstantiated, unfounded and unwarranted.

Q: That doesn't upset you?

A: It does upset us to an extent, and we are all ready to go out and fight a little harder and do a better job. But it has not affected our morale at all. The fact that I've seen this printed and heard it on the radio and T.V. hasn't affected me at all because it's not true. The morale of the men and women in the Los Angeles division has been as high as it can possibly be, I think. If you don't believe me you can ask some of the men.

Q: There has been talk of a growing Mafia — or, as you would say, organized-crime — presence in Southern California. How serious is it?

A: Well, there is an organized-crime element certainly in California. This is a very affluent section of our country, a lot of population here, and they have operated with limited success. One of the reasons why they've had only limited success is because of the outstanding law enforcement at all levels in this state. This element (organized crime) can not operate unless there is police corruption and they can, say, buy off an officer or a cheap two-bit politician here or there. They are making every effort they can to penetrate this area and invest their money in so-called legitimate enterprises. They are also actively involved in illegitimate enterprises. We have a well-organized program directed against this element.

Q: Do you have other areas of concern in Southern California?

A: We have a number of priorities. One (as I mentioned) is organized crime. Two is foreign counterintelligence. Foreign counterintelligence includes espionage directed by foreign nations against our own nation. This area, particularly Southern California, has over 50 percent of the nation's defense contracts so we know that they are here. We are involved in some operations at the present time against this element. Another area of concern is white-collar crime. And the fourth area which is rather unusual in other parts of the nation, is bank robbery.

Q: What do you see as the greatest weakness in the U.S. system of justice?

A: There are several weaknesses. I'm not going to criticize them because no country's ever devised a better judicial system. But I'd say, number one, when the criminals are allowed to commit a crime and be back out in the streets and not be punished in accordance with the crime, it allows them to commit more acts of violence against society. So, I think that we need tougher laws, longer sentences on habitual criminals. I can see where somebody can make a mistake. Sure, give them a chance. But when somebody commits three, four, five crimes I think we ought to put them behind bars and keep them there forever.

Q: Ever since Watergate, the FBI has had to face a great deal of criticism. It's image has been tarnished. Do you think the bureau will be able to regain the respect of the American people?

A: I think basically the American public still has the confidence in us that they have always had. I don't think we have a problem with our credibility. I think when someone explains to the American public, our authority for using wiretap, they can understand. When we also tell the American public that we use them only against that element that advocates the overthrow of the government, they understand. I give a lot of speeches and talk to a lot of people, and I find that the people that do not have confidence in the FBI are a very, very slim minority.

'We are not above the law'

In your editorial of April 12, "Not above the law" you complimented us by noting "the Federal Bureau of Investigation is deservedly the most highly regarded law enforcement institution in the country." We thank you. I feel the vast majority of Americans concur.

However, the opening series of suppositions in the editorial are patently specious. To "suppose" that the FBI would infiltrate an innocuous organization and conduct an in-depth investigation on the advice of a single informant is inaccurate. Your "League of Concerned Citizens" is a far cry from an extremist group dedicated to bombings, assassinations, and revolutionary acts against society. Therefore, the FBI would have no reason for, nor interest in, monitoring the calls or examining the files of such an organization.

The Weather Underground, upon which the editorial is premised, have these radical goals of violent revolution; the FBI's mandate is to protect society from them. We have done so, according to a presidential directive and without benefit of guidelines from Congress for over 40 years.

To launch the investigation described by you would certainly require substantiated, corroborated data. To suggest that the FBI would be so shallow and frivolous as to participate in the activities you "suppose" on the basis of the information you "suppose," goes beyond the bounds of Monday morning quarterbacking. It is damaging by innuendo.

We are not above the law. But let's be fair and realistic. Please don't accuse the Federal Bureau of Investigation by supposition and implication of slapdash, completely unfounded citizen harassment. If you feel our agents in the past have been over-zealous or over-aggressive in the use of surreptitious entry or monitored phone calls with such groups as the Weather Underground, bear in mind that the assessment is being made in the 1970s. These incidents took place during the 60s to early 70s when not-so-innocuous groups such as the Weather Underground were fighting the establishment with bombs and bullets.

You described former FBI Agent John Kearney as a "flunky." To so label a Special Agent of the FBI, whose daily responsibilities are immense and complex, is unfair.

It is also perhaps unwise to discuss, even editorially, "the bureau's illegal entry" without use of the traditional journalistic "alleged." An indictment is not a conviction, and no FBI Agent has ever been convicted of an illegal entry, a burglary, or violating a person's civil liberties. As usual, innocence should be presumed until guilt is legally established.

Federal Bureau Of Investigation Defended

By ALEX PURTEE
Staff Writer

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has been wrongly accused of illegal activity, according to the head of the FBI in Los Angeles.

Theodore L. Gunderson was in Palm Springs recently to visit the local FBI office. He reflected on charges against the organization by the news media, citizens and special groups.

The FBI has been accused of illegal activity because of its use of wiretaps, opening mail and entering surreptitiously.

Gunderson admits the FBI used these tactics but that they were ordered by a higher level of government. He said that in 1936 President Franklin D. Roosevelt ordered that the FBI protect the internal security of the country, but no guidelines were set.

"We've been unjustly criticized in regard to our techniques," Gunderson said. "We have authority from two sources. One, statutes passed by Congress. This involves criminal work. The other is presidential directives. In the first category there's no problem. In the second, it involves the internal security of the nation."

"There were never any guidelines. We were told to protect the nation from within. Nobody set up any guidelines except our own. We should have had Congressional guidance. Now there is some Congressional guidance."

Much of the criticism has come from activity conducted in the early '60s when there was a stronger revolutionary element in this country than exists today, Gunderson said. He justifies that work and said the FBI curbed much crime because of it. Gunderson added that the wiretaps, mail opening and surreptitious entry were used against those who advocated violence against society and in overthrow of the government.

"We don't feel we were wrong in using these techniques through presidential directives," he said. "If we had not taken an aggressive approach in the early '60s when they took over college campuses, bombed, people got killed, and millions of dollars of property were lost, the loss would have been greater than it was."

"We broke the backs of these revolutionary groups such as the Black Panthers," he added. Noting that no FBI person has ever been found guilty of illegal activity while working for that organization, Gunderson said, "I don't know of any activity when we were unlawful. I feel in some cases we were a little overly zealous or maybe aggressive."

What about a report that the FBI placed a tape recorder under Dr. Martin Luther King's hotel bed to find him of moral wrongdoing?

FBI's Top Man in L.A. — A New Image

Gunderson Reflects Openness Policy but Defends Bureau's Past

BY ROBERT RAWITCH

Times Staff Writer

At his going-away party when he left Dallas, Theodore L. (Ted) Gunderson was described as the "All-American Kid" and given a red, white and blue golf bag as a present.

He arrived in Los Angeles a little more than two weeks ago armed with two letters from golf pros, one stating that Gunderson has a handicap of two and the other asserting a 32 handicap.

"It just depends who I'm playing which one I show them," he says with a robust laugh, adding that his "honest" handicap is 24.

How often he will be able to get out on the links is a question, however, because the 49-year-old Gunderson has immersed himself in his new assignment as head of the 500-agent FBI office in Los Angeles.

Gunderson presents a sharp contrast to his predecessors here.

Reflective of the more open image of the FBI fostered by its current director, Clarence M. Kelley, Gunderson is anxious to talk about the bureau—not only its strengths but also past indiscretions.

Dressed in a gray-checked suit and a white, button-down collar shirt, he puffs frequently on a large cigar and says he'll discuss almost anything. And he does.

On disclosures in recent years of noncourt-ordered wiretaps, surreptitious entries and mail openings used by the FBI in the 1950s and 1960s to monitor political dissidents, Gunderson says he defends the bureau's actions "based on the problems of the times."

Such tactics were used, he said, during a period when extremist groups were "dropping bombs around the country, killing people. Terrorists were responsible for millions of dollars of destruction in property."

Gunderson said the controversial FBI tactics were responsible for "breaking the backs of a number of extremist groups" on the left and the right.

Gunderson maintains the FBI believed it had the authority for such actions on the basis of presidential directives and other instructions dating back to 1936 when President Franklin D. Roosevelt charged the FBI with protecting the internal security of the country.

Noting that FBI chief Kelley has publicly stated that agents may in some past instances have been overzealous in such activities, Gunderson said he believes that the FBI should be able to conduct wiretaps in cases potentially involving the internal security of the country.

"We've been charged with protecting the internal security since 1936 and we're now in the 1970s and nobody has told us how to do it," he said.

"... They've told us what not to do, but not what to do."

Gunderson, who lives in Sherman Oaks, says the way to restore the faith in the FBI that some people may have lost "is just to continue to do an outstanding job."

"The best thing we can do is just produce results for the American public," he continued. "We can do it. We have been doing it. But unfortunately our results have been overshadowed with the criticisms."

Gunderson said despite what may seem to be his hardline views on wiretapping and his strong patriotic feelings, "I'm a great civil libertarian."

"I believe in equal rights for women and for minorities and for anybody in our system," he said, noting he hopes to increase in particular the number of women special agents in Los Angeles.

There are 70 female agents nationally and five in Los Angeles.

Gunderson indicated he does not favor lowering requirements in any way to bring in more minorities or women into the FBI and, once hired, everyone is treated the same.

"Any female who works for me," he said, "she is going to do exactly what the men do. If they are hired to be agents that is what I expect them to be."

Women have been eligible to be agents only since 1972 when former FBI Director L. Patrick Gray III reversed a longstanding Hoover prohibition.

Gunderson added that one woman in particular who worked for him in Dallas "was as good as any man in the office."

Gunderson praised the late FBI director J. Edgar Hoover as "one of the great men of our century." But he also credited current director Kelley with streamlining the FBI by eliminating some of Hoover's antiquated policies and helping to restore confidence in the bureau in the aftermath of the Watergate scandals that touched on the FBI's independence.

Of President Carter's nominee to succeed Kelly, U.S. Dist. Judge Frank Johnson, Gunderson would only say, "I like what I hear about him."

Gunderson said he sees no need to make any major changes in the operation of the Los Angeles bureau, which he described as having the reputation of being one of the top bureaus in the nation.

He said he envisions an increasing trend toward "targeting" individual "hoodlums" or areas of crime and zeroing manpower and other resources in to solve the problem.

He expressed the hope that something would be done to equalize the sentences imposed for white-collar crimes compared to other offenses.

"It perturbs me that a person can go in and rob a bank of $1,500 and be sentenced to 10 years in prison and another individual can embezzle say $250,000 and be placed on probation," Gunderson said.

Like nearly all other law-enforcement officials, he was also critical of what he considers a weakness in the criminal justice system which allows "habitual criminals to continually be released back on the streets."

Gunderson has spent virtually his entire adult life in the FBI, joining as a special agent in Mobile, Ala., in 1951.

He criticizes system's treatment of 'habitual criminals.'

18 months after graduating from the University of Nebraska with a degree in economics.

A self-described "pretty good" halfback at his high school in Lincoln, Neb., he tried out for but never made the university football team.

Like most career FBI agents, Gunderson has moved all around the country for assignments during his nearly 26 years with the bureau.

After his stint in Mobile, he was a field agent in Knoxville, Tenn., New York and Albuquerque. In 1960 he was assigned to Washington, D.C., and held various administrative posts until going to New Haven, Conn., in 1965 as the assistant special agent in charge of the office, the number two post.

Later assignments took him to Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., again and then the top spots in FBI bureaus in Memphis, and Dallas. He has extensive experience in combatting espionage and organized crime.

One of Gunderson's only regrets about coming to Los Angeles is that USC doesn't play Nebraska in football this year. He doubts that he will be able to get away during his first few hectic months in his new job to see his alma mater play at least one game.

FBI criticism unfounded, says new L.A. chief

'We had authority — and did the job'

Q and A

Ted L. Gunderson feels a bit uncomfortable having an office with a bathroom and a shower. It's a bit too extravagant for the 49-year-old Gunderson, who became agent in charge of the Los Angeles office of the FBI Sept. 26.

With his straightforward approach, Gunderson is trying to dispel the image that many may hold of an FBI agent. He's a large man who chews tobacco, smokes cigars and occasionally displays a sense of humor. He describes himself as a "frustrated jock" who on previous FBI assignments has recruited football players for his alma mater, the University of Nebraska.

He joined the FBI in 1951 and has served throughout the nation. His last assignment was as agent in charge in Dallas, Texas. He earns $47,500 per year but says he doesn't have much time to spend it because he puts in long hours, has been divorced and has no family.

Gunderson has 500 agents working for him in seven Southern California counties, including 14 in the Long Beach FBI office, which covers Long Beach, Bellflower, San Pedro, Compton, Wilmington and the port area. He was interviewed in his West Los Angeles office by Independent, Press-Telegram staff writer Mark Gladstone.

Q. What will be the effect on the FBI of U.S. District Judge Frank Johnson withdrawing his nomination to succeed Clarence Kelley as director of the FBI? (Johnson has been ill and withdrew his nomination last week.)

A. I don't think it will have any great effect on the FBI... Of course Mr. Kelley's done an outstanding job and he's leaving. We have to accept that. I think 99 percent of us were pleased with the appointment of Judge Johnson... and I think we need a man of his character and integrity and leadership qualities.

Q. But isn't there some effect when the Carter administration spent a number of months looking for a successor to Kelley and they finally found someone and now it appears that it won't be until February that a new person is picked?

A. No, I don't think it has affected us. It hasn't affected me. It hasn't affected the L.A. division. Now if a person is appointed to that job later on and he's not the caliber of person that he should be — and I have confidence in the attorney general that he will be — say, if he isn't, then we will be affected.

Q. What about the status of any federal investigations into the city government of Long Beach?

A. I don't know anything about that. (Later an FBI spokesman said the term of the federal grand jury that had investigated allegations about city government has expired and nothing more is expected to happen at the present time.)

Q. My image of the FBI through the years was of anti-communism. How true is that image today?

A. Back in the '30s we broke up the old gangs, Baby Face Nelson, Machine Gun Kelly, Ma Barker. Then in the '40s we had the German Bund... and we broke them and they were ineffective, we neutralized them. Then along came the Communist Party... and we did a pretty good job on them... and then in the '50s you also had the Ku Klux Klan on the other side. We're not prejudiced one way or the other.

They were violent to society and we neutralized them... we did a job on them and along came the (Black) Panthers and we did a job on the Panthers. And, you see, during this whole period we were involved with these techniques: surreptitious entries, electronic surveillance, mail openings. Sure we were involved in them. We did a job. Now, today after the Panthers we had the SDS underground... and the Minutemen...

Q. How would you describe the morale of the FBI now compared to when you became an agent in 1951?

A. I don't see any decrease in the morale in the organization; I never have. I think, and of course I'm speaking from personal knowledge, we've been criticized quite severely since 1972...

Q. Well, is the morale different now than when J. Edgar Hoover was still alive and running the FBI? Hoover was one of the most esteemed persons . . .

A. Dynamic, automatic. There's no question about it. The surreptitious entries — I prefer that terminology versus burglaries — the wiretaps, the mail openings, these actions were all taken based on a need at the time. They were taken on presidential directives. They were taken on authority . . . and yet the

Q. Then there was a period of L. Patrick Gray, William Ruckelshaus, then Kelley . . . did I forget someone? The FBI went from being considered the pinnacle of law enforcement, and now the public seems to have a different attitude. criticism has been (against the) FBI. The Department of Justice was aware of these actions we took back in the '50s and '60s, these techniques — which I like to use rather than actions. The White House was aware of these techniques, Congress was

A. Right. There's a very good reason for that. This terminology, "the abuse of power" — perhaps we've been a little overzealous on occasion in some of these areas, but at the time we felt we were doing the right thing and we had to take that action in order to neutralize these groups (that) advocated violence and the overthrow of the government. It's because of the post-Watergate investigations, the congressional committee investigations . . . As far as I'm concerned — and the majority of FBI personnel I've been around — the criticism that has been leveled at us has been unsubstantiated in many instances unfounded. The people who have criticized us have failed to understand our problem.

Q. Which is?

A. Which is, number one, we have our authority from statutes passed by Congress, that's one source. Two, presidential directives. About 85 percent of our work is these statutes passed by Congress. About 15 percent is through presidential directives. In 1936 President Roosevelt said, "FBI, protect the internal security of the nation." Here we are in 1977, we're still doing that. . . . Nobody's told us how to do it . . .

Q. Would there be any particular instance of overzealousness in a particular area?

A. . . . I'm not going to say, "In my opinion we were overzealous." I'm going to say there were instances where we've been accused of being overzealous, like it's a written fact that they say we were overzealous with Martin Luther King . . . I don't think Mr. Hoover had a personal vendetta against Martin Luther King. We had . . . ample justification.

Q. Where would you draw the line on deciding level you can't have much to put a group under surveillance? On a day-to-day affect on that (the system). Isn't that frustrating?

A. I don't think we should investigate political organizations, but I think as on the street I can we should investigate groups that advocate violence against society or same crime. This was not the overthrow of the government... Many of these people went into these anti-war organizations and were in leadership capacities so we had the appearance of investigating the whole organization. Q. How much of your work involves intelligence cases?

A. Besides judges, are there other things that bother you?

A. Another area that particularly bothers me is graft and corruption, particularly at the public level, the crooked politician, the crooked cop, these people (who) should be serving the public...

Q. To what extent is organized crime infiltrating Southern California?

A. ... I can say this. We are investigating organized crime regardless of its ethnic origin...

Q. Can you say whether it's a majority of the office work?

A. No, not a majority but organized crime is in of the office. We have over 500 agents here and certainly a majority of us are involved in criminal investigation, about 85 percent of our work is there. The other 15 percent you can split it up.

Q. Do you think the FBI will regain the stature it had?

A. If we have the right leadership, yes... providing our critics are fair and objective...

Q. Is there more attention given now to white-collar crime than in the past?

Q. What is the principal trait an FBI agent must have?

A. There is. We're devoting nationally about 20 percent of our manpower to white-collar crime.

Q. What do you think is the number one problem you're dealing with, something particularly irksome to you?

A. I think under Hoover we had a kind of stereotype individual, the all-American superman type. I think probably today people realize we're a little more human than in the older days.

A. The one thing that particularly bothers me — for all of law enforcement — is that our judicial system repeatedly lets the habitual criminal back out on the street.

FBI official says TV film on King inaccurate in its views of bureau

By HERB PASIK
Press-Enterprise Staff Writer

PALM SPRINGS — The authenticity of a recently televised movie on the epic struggle of civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr. and the film's portrayal of the FBI is questioned by a high-ranking FBI official.

"I focused on it intently because I anticipated it would be very critical of us," said Ted Gunderson, a veteran of more than 26 years with the FBI and currently special agent in charge of the bureau's Los Angeles Division.

Gunderson, 49, who was in Palm Springs to discuss administrative matters with the trio of agents assigned here, is in charge of 500 agents and 300 support personnel whose jurisdiction encompasses a seven-county Southern California area with a population of more than 14 million.

He took issue, during an interview, with the way in which the FBI and J. Edgar Hoover, the late bureau director, were portrayed earlier this month in Abbey Mann's film biography of King, contending it was riddled with inaccuracy and in at least one instance was "totally false."

Although recent news disclosures tend to buttress the script's tough treatment of the FBI, Gunderson, who formerly headed the bureau office in Memphis, Tenn., where the late civil rights leader was slain, claims that Hoover was "made to look bad through clever writing, innuendo and acting."

"One statement attributed to Hoover (in the film) that I strongly objected to was when he passed out brochures on King to top government officials," Gunderson said. "He was quoted as saying the reason he was passing them out was to prepare these top officials for 'the black insurrection.'"

The brochures to which Gunderson alluded were related to an explosive confrontation in the film between an irate Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy and a vindictive Hoover over Hoover's distribution of transcripts that the FBI had made after bugging King's alleged sexual indiscretions.

RIVERSIDE
ENTERPRISE

2/28/78

"I order you to get them back. And I believe I am your superior," Kennedy barks. "No attorney general has ever said that to me," Hoover replies icily. "No president has ever said that to me."

"As far as the movie itself was concerned," Gunderson said, "there were intimate conversations between Hoover and the assistant (FBI) director and Hoover and Kennedy that no one except those individuals could have been privy to."

He said "one misstatement" in the film was when someone spots two FBI agents watching a civil rights demonstration and remarks, "All the FBI can do is stand around and take notes."

"That's wrong," Gunderson said. "We were very active in the civil rights movement in a very positive manner. We broke the back of the Ku Klux Klan, we placed a number of white racists and terrorists in jail."

"In the movie, the statement was made that they found the bodies of three civil rights workers in Philadelphia, Miss., but no mention was made that the FBI found the bodies and solved the case."

Gunderson said he "strongly objected" to a scene set by Mann in Memphis where, with the civil rights movement in shambles, King's aides presumably discover that young blacks were paid to disrupt a demonstration.

"Who paid you? Who paid you?" an angry Andrew Young (now U.S. ambassador to the United Nations) demands. "The FBI," snarls one youth in reply in the film.

"That's totally false," Gunderson asserted. "Having been the special agent in charge in Memphis, I'm totally familiar with that situation. We did not pay them. We actually were protecting King. I can't give the details involving those two young blacks because it would violate the privacy act, but I know the true circumstances."

Gunderson said the FBI had "an obligation" to investigate communist infiltration into the civil rights movement in the south during King's time because one of the civil right's leader's "top aides was a communist." He said he could not name that aide.

"Communists were very active in the movement in the South," he said, "so naturally we had ample justification for investigating King and the movement."

"I feel King did something that had to be done. We needed to integrate the South, but at the same time that he took this action that resulted in death and injuries and property damage, there was legislation being advocated by Presidents Kennedy and Johnson to integrate the South."

"But King felt obligated to integrate in his manner," Gunderson said. "I'm not being critical of King. He felt he had to, within his conscience, but we don't have any apologies for investigating (King and the movement)."

As for Hoover in general, Gunderson said, "I admire and respect him and feel he was one of the great men of his times. The vast majority of criticism of him is unjust and unfair. Naturally, he made some mistakes, but I don't feel they should overshadow his accomplishments. Any action he took as director was in the best interests of the nation."

Gunderson, a graduate of the University of Nebraska who joined the bureau in 1951 and views his retirement as "right around the corner," said he has not met the new FBI director, William H. Webster, a former federal appeals court judge in St. Louis, who was sworn in Thursday, but he anticipates he will "in the immediate future."

"Everything I've heard about him I like and I'm impressed. We need him badly."

When it was noted that Webster's legal opinions as a judge indicated a concern for individual rights, Gunderson replied, "That's the way it should be. Through the years, we have had the same approach. We have had an outstanding civil rights investigation record, which is very seldom mentioned."

"The problem is whether individual civil rights take precedent over security of the nation. The wiretaps we use were approved by the attorney general and in some instances by the president, and members of Congress, in some instances, were aware of them, but we were doing it in the interest of national security."

The FBI has been shaken by allegedly illegal wiretaps, break-ins and other incidents, but Gunderson said no FBI agents have been convicted of illegal wiretapping.

"Allegedly, we engaged in illegal spying, we have been burglars, but no one has been convicted in court," he said.

"At the time we used those techniques, they were approved by the attorney general. True, John Karney, a New York agent, is under indictment at present on charges of having illegally opened mail and using illegal wiretaps to locate a Weather Underground fugitive. But he has not been convicted, and until such time as he or someone else is, no one can say we're illegal."

"What's happened," Gunderson said, "is that through the press we've been tried and convicted without due process, through careless information, innuendo and loose statements."

... The dapper, cigar-chewing bureau career man, who says he will "go any place, any time, before any representative of the media, to tell and talk about the FBI, said he never has heard of so-called "Most Valuable Player" or "MVP" awards that presumably were an unpublicized ritual of the Hoover era.

According to Newsweek Magazine, some FBI agents were privately critical recently of the granting of $500 to $1,000 awards for outstanding FBI service.

The magazine said that FBI headquarters officials liberally bestowed the cash awards on themselves, but were stingy in sharing them with their front-line field agents.

"I'll say this," said Gunderson, who spent seven years assigned to FBI headquarters in Washington and about 19 years in the field, "in my career, when I served in the field, I received 10 incentive awards and they were awarded both to headquarters (personnel) and in the field.

"Where an agent does an outstanding piece of work, he is recognized with a cash bonus. For example, I coordinated an aircraft hijacking case for which I received an incentive award, I think I received $200. I (once) was involved in developing some double agents in the espionage field. I recall receiving incentive rewards of $150 to $200 for my participation in those cases."

Gunderson, who only recently took over as head of the bureau's Los Angeles Division, the second largest division in the country, appeared on the Sam Yorty television show a few weeks ago and said he intends to make frequent public appearances "as a spokesman for the FBI in this area."

"It's up to me to do this," he explained. "The other agents can't."

FBI Man's Job Tough, But Not Hopeless Cause

By AL STUMP

Herald Examiner Staff Writer

Silhouetted by searchlights on a rainswept night, National Airline's Flight 496 resembled a 153-foot fort — heavily armed, impossible to attack.

Carrying shotguns, hijackers held captive 120 passengers and crew.

The Boeing 727, seized south of New York City, had been force-landed at Philadelphia's International Airport for refueling, after which one bad break after another had befallen the FBI.

Ted Gunderson, the Bureau's local assistant chief agent, stood on a runway, dripping water and disgust.

When Gunderson and a crisis team had first approached the plane to negotiate, engines suddenly roared and the ship made a high-speed taxi run straight at them. As they ducked, the 727 swerved wildly and ended up against the terminal building.

Then, in quick order, the pilot bailed out a cockpit window, cracking his skull on the concrete; a stewardess thrust her body out an opening to scream, "for God's sake, give them what they want!" and from inside the aircraft a shot was fired.

It was all pandemonium as Gunderson faced his first skyjacking in 21 years with the FBI.

The co-pilot radioed: "They want $600,000, three parachutes and a second 727 parked nearby for their escape.

"Get it fast, they say, or everybody dies."

To Gunderson's dismay, no other airline would supply one of their available jets for the getaway, which meant a several-hour delay while National flew in a 727 from Miami with the $600,000.

Nor would any worker roll out a portable airconditioning unit demanded by the gunmen.

So Gunderson, alone, exposed to the gunmen, rolled out the unit and plugged it in.

"When the money arrives, I want the passengers and crew released," he messaged the plane.

His reply was curses and a refusal.

Reviewing that 1974 scene today — as the new special agent in charge of the FBI's Los Angeles office — big, wavy-haired Theodore L. Gunderson reflects, "You can't let yourself feel hopeless at a time like that. You also can't try anything dramatic. Make a mistake on a gamble and you've wiped out a lot of people."

Over the years as a field operator, he's been in tight spots in a dozen states. The Philadelphia case he rates the tensest of them all.

Suggestions were made that a picked squad rush the plane. "The hell we will," said Gunderson. "We'll talk to them. And keep talking. We'll stall and try to tire and confuse them."

At 3 a.m., he was still patiently talking.

He pleaded and begged the captors to turn loose the hostages. He switched to toughness: "If anyone in there is hurt, you don't leave here alive. Depend on it."

When the $600,000 arrived, he walked out and placed it 20 feet from the main hatch. "Your move," he said.

Now the skyjackers, relenting, replied, "We keep the crew when we transfer planes. You can have the others."

Decisions rarely come harder — should he exchange six crew lives for 113? Gunderson winces, these days, when he tells of his answer.

"Okay," he agreed. "Keep the crew. But give me the rest NOW."

With shotguns jammed against the crew, well-shielded from sharpshooters, the gunmen emerged, boarded plane No. 2 with the $600,000 and chutes and took off.

The freed passengers came out staggering, weeping and cheering — uninjured.

At Lake Charles, Tex., the plane blew tires upon landing and the 'jackers surrendered in exhaustion. FBI chiefs gave Gunderson a special commendation for getting the job done over nine hard hours with such tactical skill.

Would those parachutes have opened — if used?

Gunderson only smiles, reserving comment.

The Philadelphia affair helped win promotions for the Colorado-born agent and led this winter to directorship of the country's second largest FBI office here. The agency covers seven Southern California counties, with branches scattered from Santa Maria to Pasadena to Palm Springs and with 500 personnel under Gunderson.

The Bureau's been under heavy criticism in the 1970s and doesn't deserve it.

At 49, he's been one of the late J. Edgar Hoover's and now FBI director Clarence Kelley's "hot" field operators.

Coming here from running the Dallas office, he's an ex-football halfback who has worked bank shootouts, espionage cases, terrorist activity, organized crime's infiltration and gone underground against the Ku Klux Klan, Black Panthers and other extremist groups.

He's outspoken to a marked degree, sharply in contrast with tactful FBI commanders who preceded him here.

Gunderson's opinions come rapid-fire from behind a haze of cigar smoke:

"The Bureau's been under heavy criticism in the 1970s and doesn't deserve it.

"Witnesses testifying before Congressional committees against us have flat-out lied. And lied again. Critics even have brought in former FBI informants and turned them around to give evidence that wasn't true.

"Civil-rights who scream about our wiretaps, surreptitious entries and mail openings ignore the fact that in 1936 the FBI was told to protect U.S. internal security. Can you imagine what a staggering problem that's been?

"It's now 1977 and no one has come forward with solid ideas on how to accomplish this. Critics are quick to tell us what not to do.

"But there isn't an ounce of solution to rising crime of a serious nature in them."

Admissions by director Kelley that the FBI has been overzealous in some instances bring this from Ted Gunderson:

"When we had the counterintelligence effort called Cointelpro going in the '50s and '60s, it helped break the backs of people dropping bombs everywhere and wrecking millions of dollars worth of property. Extreme tactics were needed if we were to stop them — both on the left and right, politically.

"We were rapped for that. But by doing the best work possible today, we'll come through this bad spell."

The husky Gunderson, who lives in Sherman Oaks, insists that denunciations of the Bureau after Watergate were unwarranted.

"We had nothing to do with the incident. We were responsible for identifying Watergate conspirators for prosecution. The FBI was a tower of strength here, yet was called all sorts of names."

Sports "nut" Gunderson also reads widely. He says:

"Ex-federal agents who write books 'exposing' their former employer are contemptible.

"The other night I saw a preview of 'The Choirboys', based on a book by one time local police officer.

"It's awful, strictly opportunistic. Another case of defaming the law for profit."

(LAPD Chief Edward Davis earlier described 'The Choirboys' as a book as "nothing but vomit.")

Citing a solution rate of well over 80 per cent of bank robberies in Los Angeles — the city which leads the nation in such thefts — Gunderson plans no shakeup of the Bureau. Two goals, however, he has in mind.

Counterespionage efforts will be emphasized, considering that Los Angeles now has more than 40 consulates and that a high percentage of government defense contracts are let here.

Individual "targeting" of crime bosses, rather than "group study", is another objective.

Meanwhile, Gunderson plans to appeal to citizens to support his office and agents, via press, radio and TV.

In Memphis one day, he pursued three bank robbers who held two women clerks as hostages.

While shots by the robbers whizzed around him, he helped pull a wounded policeman to safety.

Then — as in the Philadelphia skyjacking — he talked and talked to the cornered thieves on a bullhorn.

Two surrendered themselves and the hostages and the third killed himself.

His own life he regards as on the charmed side.

He's escaped death threats by the Black Panthers in Connecticut, gunfire in Tennessee, and "hit" men of Soviet spies in New York.

"I plan," says Ted Gunderson, reaching for another cigar, "to live to be 103."

The FBI pleads its own case well

A quote from your newspaper: "The Justice Department disclosed Wednesday that two FBI agents had been arrested and had lost their jobs last year for shoplifting."

I'm getting a little sick of this, "let's kick the FBI around," attitude from the press and other sources in Washington. What's so newsworthy about stealing in Washington? They have been picking our pockets for years. If it was some other department that had two shoplifters, would it have made the papers? Can you see TASS (The Russian News Agency) disclosing that two KGB agents had been caught stealing?

Thanks to The Herald Examiner for the printing of Ted Gunderson's (agent in charge of FBI in Los Angeles) letter in defense of the FBI. Defense that is of remarks you made about the bureau and one of his agents in your editorial "Not above the law" (April 12). Never thought I would see the time the FBI would have to defend themselves in a "Letters to the editor" column in a newspaper. Keep those letters coming Ted. I think you are going to need them. Besides, I like your style.

Dear [Redacted]

I have at hand your articulate and thoughtful letter of April 20, 1978, and want you to know how deeply I appreciate receiving it.

Your remarks regarding my interview with the "Herald-Examiner" were particularly kind. We do need the support of responsible, law-respecting citizens such as you to spur us on to continued vigorous enforcement of the law.

As to the morale of our Agents, I am of the belief that it is good because the job they do is important. That fact makes our work self-rewarding to a large extent and thick-skinned when it comes to unfair or unjustified criticism.

The purpose of this communication is to re-that Special Agent in Charge (SAC) TED L. GUNDERSON is designated as Assistant Director in Charge (ADIC) of the Los Angeles Division of the FBI.

The Director's letter transferring me from Dallas to Los Angeles in September, 1977, advised that I was to serve in the capacity of Senior SAC of this office and would not carry the title of Assistant Director in Charge which was the title carried by my predecessor.

The Los Angeles Division, which is the second largest in the Bureau, is unique in its organizational structure having four SACs and no Assistant Special Agents in Charge (ASACs). Each of our three divisions, Administrative, Criminal-Intelligence, and Organized Crime-White Collar Crime, is headed by a SAC who is assisted by a Coordinating Supervisor designated as #1 Man. Although each SAC is fully aware of his individual role, responsibility, and authority, all of us are frequently placed in the awkward position of having to explain in detail to outsiders the relative position of each. There have been occasions where different newspaper articles appearing in the local press within the same week have identified three different individuals as SAC of the Los Angeles Division. This is a situation which can be very easily rectified by reactivating the title of ADIC or any other title which would specifically identify myself as the ranking official of this division. The Bureau should also be aware that from an operational standpoint, our agreement with General and Pacific Telephone Companies requires that requests for telephone toll records in FCI matters be signed by an individual carrying the title of ADIC. Since September, 1977, it has been necessary for all such requests to be forwarded to FBIHQ.

Los Angeles FO.

Dear Sir:

I have talked to several persons in your office while you were out of office when I called from Los Angeles. b6

This call pertains the refusal of the Director of the FBI in Los Angeles Mr. Ted Gunderson, and the United States Attorney [redacted] for the Central District of California to conduct an investigation to my allegation that Evelle Younger, and his Staff, the California Attorney General, have bribed several judges in the State of California.

I believe that both these two officers Gunderson, and [redacted] are in violation of 18 USC 1510, refusing to conduct a criminal investigation. b6

I have proof based on transcripts and other documents that judges were bribed. I further have logged a complaint that Evelle Younger has offered my former attorney a bribe to join his conspiracy to conceal this scandal by trying to deport me with forged documents in violation of 18 USC 1546. For joining such conspiracy he was offered and made a Federal Magistrate in the United States District Court, Central District of California. This bribe in violation of 18 USC 201.

I have brought this scandal to the attention of Allan Cranston the State Senator, Robert Dornan congressman, and Thomas O'Neill, the Speaker, and none are willing to take over the investigation, as the FBI refuses to bring this scandal to light prior to the California elections in November where this Evelle Younger plans to run for Governor of this State.

For reason that neither the FBI, and the Senators are willing to take any action I have addressed myself to Senator Peter Rodino of the Judiciary to see what can be done to break this conspiracy and corruption in the State of California.

By now you have the letter of July 22nd, 1978 of which a copy also went to the President of the United States.

I can be reached by phone in California under [redacted] or by mail via the above address.

I await to hear from you, and remain,

Very truly yours,

Thank you for providing this office with copies of the enclosed correspondence and news clippings. I respectfully request that future mailings with controversial enclosures be marked to my personal attention in order that their validity can be established prior to their becoming general knowledge within the office.

I thought you might have an interest in knowing that [redacted] letter is the only depreciatory one we have seen. We have received five laudatory letters, two of which are enclosed for your review. I also received approximately 25 positive and supportive telephone calls and personal commentaries regarding this matter from such prominent people as former Governor Ronald Reagan, Los Angeles Sheriff [redacted] Olympics Committee [redacted] and [redacted] off the Chinese Information Service.

Dear Sir:

I spent the better part of my governmental career in various areas of national intelligence. Some of the best training I received was through the offices of your organization. Although my military rearing precluded naivete I was always able to maintain the FBI on a firm pedestal. Many of my associates are still active and they still have my fullest respect.

The one thing I learned from the FBI was surveillance -- in all forms. Never was I exposed to such amateurish activities described in the attached clippings. Perhaps because of the publicity of recent years the FBI hasn't been able to maintain desired standards. I do not know what in the hell happened out here, but something is wrong.

If [] is a bad guy and he may well be, then either tail him or harass him into making a move. But for the sake of all I respect, do the damned job with finesse. If the team simply fouled up a multi-agent surveillance, send them back to school and clam up. The key word is "clam". Unfortunately I have made a few tactical boners (but was lucky), but no law of the press requires you to sound off. Agent Gunderson ought to be transferred as soon as this episode dies down. Then he should be reminded that God gave him two eyes, two ears and one mouth -- the latter being a design correction.

FBI Chief in L.A. Attacks Times' Story on Scholar

Reacts to Article Revealing That Visiting UCLA Teacher Was Followed by 'Amateurish' Agents

BY DOYLE McMANUS July 18, 1978
Times Staff Writer

The chief of the FBI's Los Angeles office attacked The Times Monday for publishing a story on Paul Lin, a visiting scholar at UCLA who discovered he was being followed by FBI agents.

"If a bona fide law enforcement agency is conducting an investigation, then I think the American public and press have to assume that it's legitimate," Special Agent Ted L. Gunderson said.

"You have just to take our word for it—if it's our investigation, it's a legitimate surveillance."

But Gunderson refused to confirm or deny that Lin's shadows were FBI men.

"If we are running a pending investigation, we are prohibited from making a statement one way or the other," he explained.

Lin, 58, a Canadian-born history professor from Montreal's McGill University, spent 15 years in China. He arrived in Los Angeles on sabbatical in December, and UCLA hired him as a consultant to explore the possibility of an exchange program with Peking.

On June 10, he first noticed that men in unmarked cars were occasionally following him—but, he said, "they seemed too blatant, too amateurish to be the FBI."

After several fruitless attempts to identify the unknown agents, Lin called a Times reporter, who advised him to make a complaint to the Santa Monica police. Tailed by four unmarked cars plus the reporter—who quickly lost the trail—Lin drove to the police department.

A check of the shadows' license plate numbers revealed them to be law enforcement agents. Sources in Los Angeles and Washington said Lin was under investigation by the FBI's counterespionage section, apparently as a possible Chinese spy.

Lin angrily denied being an agent for any government, and accused the FBI of harassing him. FBI officials, contacted last week by The Times, refused to comment on the case.

Gunderson said he was not afraid that publicity could hinder the investigation, but that it could damage the bureau's image.

"As far as I'm concerned, the article serves no purpose except to possibly embarrass the FBI, which is a first-class law enforcement agency," he charged.

'AMATEURISH' SLEUTHS ARE FBI AGENTS

Visiting UCLA Scholar Picks Up a Tail

BY DOYLE McMANUS

Times Staff Writer

Paul Lin, a visiting scholar at UCLA, is being followed.

From one to four men have openly tailed Lin, his wife and their daughter around Los Angeles intermittently for a month.

At first Lin, a Canadian-born history professor who spent 15 years in Communist China, did not know who was shadowing him.

"They seemed too blatant, too amateurish to be the FBI," he said.

So, Lin says, one day he stopped his car, marched back and asked the man in the car tailing him to identify himself. The man refused.

Next, in a scene straight from the Keystone Kops, Lin and several friends shadowed the shadowers, chasing them with cameras through a terminal at Los Angeles International Airport in a vain attempt to find out who they were.

Finally, the 58-year-old professor from Montreal's McGill University decided to go to the police. He backed his car out of the driveway of his Santa Monica home—and four unknown men jumped into four unmarked cars to follow him.

The professor and his four shadows, themselves tailed by a Times reporter, nearly caused a traffic jam in the parking lot of the Santa Monica police department.

It was there that Lin learned who his "amateurish" shadows were. Their license plate numbers, fed into the state Department of Motor Vehicles computer, came up blank—meaning law enforcement.

They turned out to be the FBI—and they apparently suspected Lin of spying for Peking.

Lin angrily denied being an agent for anybody and accused the FBI of harassing him and his family. He also believes his telephone has been tapped. The FBI is saying nothing.

"It has really been intimidation," Lin's wife, Eileen, said. "This is the first time we ever considered moving to the United States, and the message I get is that we're not wanted."

Paul and Eileen Lin say they don't know why the FBI is tailing them.

"Everything we've done is out in the open," Lin added.

The FBI's interest in Lin appears natural, for he and his wife lived in China from 1949 to 1964 and still travel to Peking several times a year. Most of his trips are on behalf of U.S. and Canadian companies seeking trade with the Chinese.

One of his recent clients was UCLA, which hired him as a consultant to explore the possibility of exchange programs with Chinese universities.

"There isn't anything secret about what he was doing," UCLA Vice Chancellor Elwin V. Svensen told The Times. "I find it (the FBI investigation) a little bizarre."

The Lins first went to China in 1949 after Prof. Lin finished graduate work at Harvard "to see this great history-making event, to see the transformation of the country," Lin said. He freely acknowledges being an admirer of Mao Tse-tung, but says he has never been a Communist.

"We didn't intend to stay that long, but we found it very exciting. The whole population was almost euphoric about the possibilities for their country," he said.

But after 15 years, they decided to return to Canada—both to "build bridges" between China and America, and to give their children, who attended Chinese schools in Peking, a grounding in Western culture.

Lin initially was enthusiastic about helping UCLA's bid for an exchange program with China, but now, he says, "I feel like dropping the whole damn thing."

"It sure puts a damper on my enthusiasm for building bridges," he said.

But Mrs. Lin saw at least some silver lining.

"Thank God it turned out to be the FBI," she said. "We didn't know who it was. They could have been hired by the Kuomintang (the anti-Communist party which rules Taiwan) or anybody. At least the FBI is under some kind of control."

"Maybe they'll follow us when we drive up to Vancouver this week," she said with a smile. "That would make it a safe trip."

Dear Mr Gunderson:

Our family was certainly pleased that you spoke out against the Times' article about some Chinese professor saying that the FBI had followed him. We were insulted by the way the paper talked about the F.B.I. and I wrote Mr Wm. F. Thomas, Vice Pres. & Editor, to that effect.

The FBI is respected and appreciated deeply by most Americans and any affront to them is a personal affront to us. We Americans are greatly protected by the FBI so we resent any attempt to discredit them. As you know, we are quick to write our defense of the FBI to Griffin Bell or anyone else.

We are happy that the FBI is beginning to speak out in its own defense and we greatly appreciate what you said in today's paper.

I told Mr Thomas that the Times seemed to be following the mold of the media that Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn described in his Harvard commencement address.

Please accept our grateful thanks to the wonderful F.B.I. for their protection of us and our country.

Dear Ted:

The article in the Los Angeles Times on July 17, 1978 concerning the FBI surveillance of the so-called visiting scholar at UCLA, [redacted] was another example of the Time's "embarrass the establishment, particularly if it's the FBI" policy. Anyone with any sense could see the superficiality and callous disregard for the serious problems of intelligence gathering which face the FBI.

Thus it was gratifying to me to read the Los Angeles Times issue of July 18, 1978 which printed your reaction to the previous article. I particularly realize the delicacy of responding to an article of this nature covering such subject matter, and therefore I am pleased you spoke out with force. REPLY TO: SAC, LOS ANGELES (66-4542)

SUBJECT: SUPERVISORY ORGANIZATION
LOS ANGELES DIVISIONTO: DIRECTOR, FBI
PERSONAL ATTN.: Judge WILLIAM H. WEBSTER*Gundersen, Theodore L.*

Reference is made to communication dated 11/12/78 from ROBERT H. MATHESON, JR., Administrative SAC, Los Angeles, advising of SAC MATHESON's retirement effective 12/17/78.

After considerable thought and analysis, I believe SAC MATHESON should be replaced by a seasoned ASAC; that office should continue to operate with an experienced number one man, both he and the ASAC responsible directly to me.

In all good conscience, however, I am compelled to advise against replacing the other SAC's in this Division with ASAC's through attrition. These are operational Divisions (Criminal-Intelligence and Organized Crime - White Collar Crime), and their investigations are much too intricate and complicated to permit ASAC supervision. The sensitive and often extensive supervision in such investigative areas as political corruption, organized crime, and foreign counter-intelligence make SAC authority and experience mandatory.

In the event the Bureau is giving consideration to replacing these SAC's with ASAC's in the future, I would like to point out the inconsistency of heading 150-men Divisions here with ASAC's when only a handful of Field Offices have as many Agents in their complete structure. Even New Rochelle, a New York satellite office, has an SAC and ASAC with a complement of fewer than 70 Agents.

While I respect the opinion of the Bureau regarding my request that my position be set apart from those of the other SAC's with the designation ADIC, I firmly believe that failure to do so in some way is a mistake which is not in the Bureau's best interests. All four SAC's here are receiving notable publicity, and the previously mentioned confusion on the part of some as to "who's in charge" promises to continue with both the media and the general public. Enclosed are two recent copies of IMPACT which illustrate the problem. Three SAC's are quoted, and a fourth is mentioned a plurality of times.

Since the Bureau decided not to designate the senior official position in Los Angeles as ADIC, I suggest consideration be given to future redesignation of the senior SAC position here as "Chief SAC." You may also wish to consider this designation throughout the Bureau. This term uses law enforcement parlance which is clear to fellow police agencies as well as to the public and media personnel. In multi-SAC offices such as this one, the SAC title could be retained for divisional heads and the traditional ASAC could be designated "Deputy SAC."

It is requested that these suggestions be given prompt consideration.

ADDENDUM: CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION FMM:kvw 12/27/78

CID is of the opinion that to add additional titles to the many currently utilized to identify Bureau officials would only add to the confusion cited by SAC, Los Angeles. It is certainly true that having an SAC supervise an SAC is not the best possible situation and any office having multiple SACs should have an Assistant Director in Charge.

No reason to assume such a chain of command
If former SAC Matheson is replaced by an ASAC to direct the Administrative Division in Los Angeles, undoubtedly a situation would develop whereas in time the ASAC of the Administrative Division would be in charge of the Los Angeles Office in the SAC's absence and therefore directing the activities of other SACs. If the SAC title is to remain in effect in Los Angeles and former SAC Matheson is to be replaced by an ASAC, the other two divisions in Los Angeles should also be under the direction of an ASAC.

It is the opinion of CID that the Los Angeles Division can be best managed by an SAC and three ASACs.

Los Angeles letter to Director, 11/30/78
Re: SUPERVISORY ORGANIZATION
LOS ANGELES DIVISION

ADDENDUM, INTELLIGENCE DIVISION, 1/9/79, ABF/bad

The INTD concurs with the recommendation previously made by the Career Board and endorsed herein by the Criminal Investigative and Administrative Services Divisions that the eventual executive structure of the Los Angeles Office should be an SAC and three ASACs. It was the Career Board's suggestion that this executive structure be arrived at by attrition. The recent reassignment of WFO ASAC Joseph V. Corless to Los Angeles as ASAC (GS-16) for Administration is the first step in implementing this change. It should be continued by eventually replacing the two Operational SACs with ASACs. The Administrative ASAC of Los Angeles is the logical executive to be in charge of that office in the absence of the SAC and it would be illogical, and in fact, impossible for this to occur if the two Operational Divisions of that office are headed by SACs.

The INTD is of the opinion that the Foreign Counterintelligence (FCI) Program of the Los Angeles Office, which is in its Operational Criminal/Intelligence Division, can be effectively administered by an ASAC. In fact, it is submitted that given the "public nature" of the SAC position that an ASAC would be able to devote more time to the active management of his investigative program leaving publicity matters to the single SAC.

By structuring Los Angeles' executives as an SAC and three ASACs, it eliminates the problem of "who is in charge" and the confusion that would continue by designating a "Chief SAC" or similar title.

Mr. Theodore L. Gunderson
Senior Special Agent in Charge
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Los Angeles, California

Dear Ted:

X Los Angeles F.O.

Your memorandum dated November 30, 1978, has been circulated for comment among the members of the Executives Conference. The three divisions most directly concerned, Criminal Investigative, Intelligence, and Administrative Services uniformly believe that the Los Angeles Division can be effectively managed by a Senior SAC and three ASACs. I am aware that you and others in the Los Angeles Office do not believe that the Washington Field Office is an appropriate analog because Los Angeles receives many of the inquiries that would more likely come to Headquarters if originated in Washington. I intend to follow the recommendation of my Conference in this matter but will be watchful for the problems which you have anticipated in your memorandum. I appreciate your contribution to the subject and I value your experience and judgment.

With best wishes,

REC-102

Sincerely,

/s/ William H. Webster

Honorable William Webster
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
U. S. Department of Justice
Washington, D. C. 20535

Dear Judge:

AXIOS, an organization of Greek-American businessmen and professionals, was formed last year in Los Angeles.

Representing a cross-section of some 250,000 Americans of Greek descent in the Southern California area, AXIOS has as its aims to become more involved in the California governmental process, as well as active participation in charitable and community events.

In this connection, we staged an "F.B.I. Nite" on January 9th, and had as your representatives, Ted L. Gunderson, Los Angeles Special Agent in Charge, William D. Neumann, Organized Crime-White Collar Crime Division, and Herbert D. Clough, Jr., Criminal-Intelligence Division, all of whom were splendid.

The Board of Directors has directed me to formally commend them to you and to offer the Bureau our wholehearted support and assistance wherever possible.

Will you please extend to the gentlemen above our highest commendation and appreciation for the job they and your personnel are doing for all of us. Thank you, also, for the outstanding job you are doing for our country.

REC-134

Kindest personal regards and best wishes.

Sincerely,

SPECIAL BULLETIN

The Business Meeting called for January 9, 1979 at the Los Angeles Hilton has been changed to "F.B.I. Nite" with Assistant Director in Charge of the Los Angeles Division, Ted Gunderson, as our guest speaker. (The Business Meeting will be re-scheduled in the near future.)

Mr. Gunderson will be accompanied by other top officials of the F.B.I., past and present, and will give us an inside view of "What's going on in America."

Don't miss this opportunity to meet and greet these dedicated public servants.

Much maligned by some in recent years, the F.B.I. stands today, as always, as a bulwark against crime and subversion in America.

Mr. Gunderson is a "stand-up and be counted" and "call it like it is" law enforcement official.

Please don't miss this one. Each of you is urged to bring a guest.

Remember, the meeting starts with a social hour at 6:30 in the Garden Room East and dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. Reservations are a must - please call the Executive Director, Hal Marlowe, at 213/877-0011, or return the reservation slip that was enclosed with the previous mailing.

AUG 29 1979

Dear Judge Webster:

Homer called last Thursday regarding my letter to the Los Angeles Herald Examiner published on January 17.

I want you to know I have never said we cannot live within the Attorney General guidelines, nor have I ever intentionally made a public statement contradictory to one of your own. You know I believe in a chain of command and in teamwork.
I do not endorse public airing of what might be construed as family differences. I have one hundred percent confidence in your leadership and am totally loyal to you and the FBI.

The editorial to which my letter was a response criticized local law enforcement for inadequate handling of a Beverly Hills demonstration which became violent. It was perpetrated by the Iranian Students Association. Criticism was also directed at the FBI for failure to provide local law enforcement with intelligence information to help the police anticipate and cope with the situation. My letter was intended to underscore the fact that such criticism is unjustified since neither we nor local law enforcement possessed prior intelligence information on the Iranian students.

My letter was a simple and basic defense of law enforcement; feedback resulting from it has been numerically impressive and, with the exception of Homer's criticism, completely positive. As examples, Ted Cooke, Culver City
Chief of Police, and [redacted] of the California Highway Patrol, wrote to say the letter was "right on target" and that we need more law enforcement leaders to stand up and speak out when unfair and unjustified criticism is directed toward our profession.

We did know that Iranian students planned an anti-Shah demonstration. But because of lack of informant coverage, we possessed no prior indication of possible violence. The intelligence guidelines appear to make the

(U) assumption that the FBI has existing sources within the Iranian Students Association. This is not the case, although perhaps it should be. In view of this Division's lack of informants within the organization (who would likely have enabled us to foretell the violent acts), our investigations were restricted to preliminary inquiries, that is, mere record checks. ~~C~~ ↑

Many of these so-called Iranian students used fictitious names and addresses upon entering this country. Neither we nor the Immigration and Naturalization Service know their true identities. We may never know. Yet, these people flew the hammer and sickle at their headquarters during the Los Angeles convention and committed arson and physical violence at Beverly Hills.

It is also worth remembering that members of the Baader Meinhof, apprehended on international borders, attempted to enter this country with stolen Iranian passports. b6
[redacted] herself utilized one such passport; she was accompanied at the time of her apprehension by an Iranian-born naturalized U. S. citizen. Indeed, we possess current teletypes indicating the possibility that West German terrorists are even now entering this country. It appears their destination is Los Angeles.

Your attention is called to the enclosed Los Angeles letter to the Director 1/30/79 which regards the Prairie Fire Organizing Committee, an extremely radical and dangerous group whose members were observed participating in the Iranian students' demonstration in Beverly Hills. The words "Iranian students" keep reappearing as if by magic. And they are but one example in many.

I'm sure you remember the thrice-given Congressional testimony of G. Stuart Knight, Director of the Secret Service (1/13/77, 7/27/77, and 9/21/77). He stated there are U. S. cities where the President is advised not to visit because erosion of law enforcement intelligence has reached the point where actions of radical demonstrators and potential terrorists cannot be predicted.

This was the primary message of my letter to the Herald Examiner. It is unjust to criticize law enforcement for inadequate intelligence when regulations are so restrictive at all levels that adequate intelligence becomes impossible.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Judge, I am writing honestly, not disrespectfully. I must say in all candor our intelligence situation is in abysmal condition. The European wave of terrorism is obviously now upon our shores and, because we must be reactive to the bomb explosion rather than proactively preventing it, we are ill-equipped to contend with forthcoming violence. As pointed out in the enclosure, individual rights are of utmost importance; but some of our citizens are going to have their individual rights blasted off the face of the earth if our intelligence community does not gird its loins "with the laudable purpose of prevention" rather than collecting evidence afterwards.

I urgently request that you lend an unbiased ear to a field commander who daily witnesses Agent frustration and overcautiousness. These men and women fear they might overstep the guidelines or find themselves powerless to protect their sources from disclosure. Hesitancy is not a historic earmark of a Special Agent of the FBI.

I am compelled to let you know my feelings regarding these important matters. I would be less than honest if I did not.

Warmest regards,

Ted L. Gunderson
Special Agent in Charge

the Los Angeles area.

Since the arrests of CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF, [redacted]

(Bureau file 174-7926, San Francisco file 174-1703, members have established at least a temporary residence in the Los Angeles area. From 40 to 50 members of the PFOC have attended the trial proceedings of the WEATHAPS matter; the majority of the members are from the San Francisco area. A few former Weatherman fugitives have also been observed at the trial proceedings; [redacted] [redacted] is one who attends the proceedings on a regular basis.

The PFOC has become active in and has been offering support to a number of other radically-oriented organizations in the area. Its members have been observed participating in the recent Iranian demonstrations in Beverly Hills, California (Bureau file 105-99542, Los Angeles file 199-3, case captioned "IRANIAN STUDENTS dealt with the murder of a taxicab driver; the South African Support committee and the Southern African Coalition both speak out against what they claim are CIA backed mercenaries and the White Rulers in Africa; and [redacted] is a

It is apparent that the PFOC has not lessened their activities since the WEATHAPS arrest, and if anything the PFOC has increased activities to gain support from other similar-goal-oriented organizations.

All of the information regarding the PFOC's recent activities have come from local intelligence agencies, and there is much more valuable information available which we cannot accept or report on because of the very limited authority upon which we presently operate, based on the Attorney General's (AG) letter dated July 15, 1977.

According to this authorization for a full field investigation of the PFOC, the only way individual members may be investigated is if it can be shown that they provide material support to members of the Weather Underground (WU) or the Revolutionary Committee (RC). This is like putting the cart before the horse. It is the WU and the RC that have taken credit for numerous bombings over the years. The main thrust of the investigation is to locate and arrest these terrorists. If the FBI knew where the WU or the RC were they could be arrested. If we do not know where the "enemy" is how can we possibly investigate those who aid them in their activities -- we cannot. Qu

The PFOC is not organized like a military organization; the members do not have ranks from private to general. Some of the old-time members may have more influence than others, but generally whatever decisions are reached are done so by a collective decision. There are no public announcements of PFOC meetings and activities; it is a closed group with word passed from individual to individual. It is impossible to report on PFOC activities unless you have good informant coverage of the organization, and an informant cannot penetrate the organization until he first gains the trust of one of its members; but based on the present AG guidelines an individual cannot be investigated, so we have gone full circle.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

LA 100-85463

CONFIDENTIAL

A full field investigation of the PFOC is warranted, and at least a limited investigation of all its members as well as a targeted investigation against its more prominent members is needed. & u

The PFOC had a prominent role in the WEATHAPS case. The group knew and approved of the activities of the five defendants. This was knowledge acquired prior to the arrest and not after. Under the present guidelines we have been forced into a reactive position. If a bomb goes off, or an assassination or kidnapping takes place, and we somehow discover the PFOC is involved we will be in square one. Who do we interview? Where do they live?

A similar situation exists in a recent incident in Los Angeles with the Iranian students. Hundreds of Iranians demonstrated against a residence in Beverly Hills, California, wherein the mother of the Shah of Iran was residing. Violence erupted causing many injuries and thousands of dollars in property damage. The FBI, under the guidelines under effect at that time, could not possibly foresee the situation which resulted. Private citizens and public officials, including the President of the United States, were in an uproar wanting explanations as to why this type of thing could occur without prior knowledge by the intelligence community.

Individual rights are of the utmost importance in a free society, but what of the rights of the victims. Los Angeles is at present in a frustrating position and respectfully requests any suggestions. There is a danger here, but our hands are tied.

CONFIDENTIAL

TO THE DIRECTOR:

Pursuant to your instructions, I contacted Ted Gunderson regarding his "Letter to the Editor" which appeared in the "Los Angeles Examiner" of January 13th (copy attached). During the course of our conversation, it was apparent that Ted was not that familiar with your views on the Department's guidelines. I have sent a personal letter to Ted including public statements, press conference comments, and speeches wherein you have set forth your views on domestic security guidelines. I also furnished him your public statements on the Charter so that he doesn't get off the reservation on this very important subject.

Judge William H. Webster
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

MEF
VAC/olef

Dear Judge Webster:

This will confirm our telephone conversation of last Saturday and my intent to retire from the Federal Bureau of Investigation as of the close of business Friday, April 20, 1979.

I admit to some personal sadness as I retire. When I entered on duty with the FBI more than 27 years ago, I did so with a special pride in becoming a member of the finest investigative and law enforcement agency ever. My original analysis of the Bureau has been underscored and strengthened in a thousand ways over the years; thus, my sadness in leaving the ranks of such a magnificent organization, made up of stouthearted men and women who daily accept awesome responsibility and bravely persevere in its discharge.

In spite of my sadness, I yet have that special pride with which I took my initial oath. I am proud of my career, proud to have had a part in the admirable accomplishments of the Bureau during the historic past three decades.

I shall always have that pride and shall forever cherish my membership in the FBI family. As the poet Browning says, it is "all that I was born to be and do." I mean it most sincerely when I say if I can contribute to the weal of the Bureau in any way in a private capacity, please feel free to call upon me.

REC-137

Honored I am to have been in a position of leadership in the FBI. And I consider my service in Los Angeles, 1979, in most ways the flagship of the Bureau, a capstone to my career.

RETIREMENT INFORMATION

Name: Theodore L. GundersonDate: 3-22-79

APPLICATION

☒ The "Application for Retirement" will be forwarded by the Bureau to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) for processing.

DEPOSIT OR REDEPOSIT

Making either a deposit or redeposit is optional. Such amounts are paid directly by you to OPM; therefore, it is possible that you have already made the deposit or redeposit indicated below without the Bureau's knowledge, having dealt directly with OPM. If so, you may ignore this matter now. If not, after a review of the approximate annuity figures shown below, should you decide to make a deposit you should submit a note over your signature to be attached to your Application for Retirement (Standard Form 2801) requesting amount due and you will be given the opportunity to make a lump-sum payment before completion of retirement processing by OPM. An applicant for retirement is automatically given an opportunity to make a redeposit at the time the application for retirement is processed by OPM. OPM desires that an employee not file an Application for Deposit or Redeposit (Standard Form 2803) if retirement is contemplated within six months.

☒ Not applicable.

☐ The deposit you may owe is a payment to the retirement fund to cover a period of service during which no retirement deductions were withheld from salary. Credit is given for service not covered by deductions; however, if the deposit is not paid, your annuity will be reduced each year by 10% of the amount due as deposit. The amount you may owe is approximately $_____.

☐ The redeposit you may owe is a payment to the retirement fund to cover a period of service for which retirement deductions were withheld from your salary but later refunded to you following your separation from civilian employment. No credit is allowed in the computation of annuity for the period of service covered by the refund unless redeposit is made. The amount you may owe is approximately $_____.

ANNUITY

Annuities are computed on full months of service. The estimated annuity below is based on your ☒ Bureau service, including 0 year, 5 months, 12 days of accrued sick leave, ☐ other civilian Government service and/or ☐ military service known to us, totalling 27 years, 8 months, 1 days. OPM makes the official computations and determines whether prior service is creditable, advising you direct the exact amount of your annuity. The figures below are only estimates, and they do not take account of deduction for health insurance coverage. You should receive the first annuity check about 2 months after separating from the Bureau's rolls. Separation for disability retirement cannot be made final until OPM has notified FBI of the approval of your application.

TYPES OF ANNUITY

Married applicants only

☐ Reduced Type of Annuity with benefit to Spouse (See over, next to last paragraph, Health Benefits Program) $_____

☐ Annuity Without Survivor Benefit

Unmarried applicants only (Including Widowed or Divorced)

☒ Annuity without Survivor Benefit $2519*

☐ Reduced Annuity With Benefit to Person having an Insurable Interest $_____

☐ Survivor Annuity (55% of all or the portion of your annuity specified) $_____ plus annuity for each eligible child.

SEPARATION FROM ROLLS

Since you ☒ will cease active duty ☐ ceased active duty on 3-30-79 your annuity will commence 4-1-79 immediately following the ☒ cease active duty date or ☐ expiration of sick leave on _____ earned through 3-30-79. Item B2 on application ☒ changed to ☐ should be changed to close of business retirement and shorten your total length of service.

☐ If retirement is for disability, separation takes effect after the approval of OPM is received by the Bureau or after the expiration of any accrued sick leave, whichever occurs later. Under Internal Revenue Service regulations, some sick pay and disability income is not taxable; thus, you may be able to exclude from Federal income tax liability all or a part of the payments you receive for sick leave used prior to the date your annuity commenced, as well as for annuity received as a disability annuitant. Any such exemption would terminate when you reach normal retirement age. Thereafter, this annuity would be Federal income tax-free until you had drawn as annuity an amount equal to the retirement deductions from your salary while you were working. OPM will advise you of this amount.

☒ If retirement is not for disability, the "sick pay" exclusion is not permissible. Once you have received in annuity as much as was deducted from your salary for retirement purposes, you are subject to Federal Income Tax on the rest. OPM will advise how much was deducted. Only if you were incapacitated and were granted extended sick and/or annual leave for sick leave exceeding thirty calendar days prior to separation for retirement might you qualify for a "sick pay" exclusion for the leave period.

☒ Questions you may have as an annuitant regarding your income tax liability or privileges can be answered by the Internal Revenue Service. Internal Revenue Publication, Comprehensive Tax Guide to U.S. Civil Service Retirement Benefits, may be of assistance to you. Note: You are required to file a Federal gift tax return, Form 709, if you elect a reduced annuity with benefit to surviving spouse. In the usual case it is unlikely any tax will be payable; however, a tax return must be filed.

☒ You should send OPM over your signature any change in address, setting out your CSA (retirement) number.

☒ Following your 4125 tion date, you will receive a lump-sum payment for your accumulated annual leave in the approximate amount of $_____. If it is necessary for you to use annual leave prior to your cease active duty date, the lump-sum payment you receive will, of course, be less. A deduction for Federal income tax has been made from this estimate.

Based on 2-28-79 computation with the 3.9% cost-of-living increase that was effective 3-1-79, included; this is a greater annuity than that earned as of 3-30-79, and therefore, you do not receive credit for service from 3-1-79 to 3-30-79 for annuity earning purposes.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES' GROUP LIFE INSURANCE

- ☒ Records show you elected Optional Insurance of $10,000 and have Regular Insurance of $ 50,000 ☐ Records show you declined Optional Insurance but are covered by Regular Insurance of $ _____ ☐ Records show you waived both Regular and Optional Insurance.

You may continue your regular group life insurance coverage following retirement without further cost if you have completed 5 years of creditable civilian service and have been insured under the program for the five years of service immediately preceding retirement (or the date you become eligible for compensation benefits), or the full period(s) of service during which the regular life insurance was available to you, if less than five years, or you may convert your coverage to an individual life insurance policy without being required to undergo a physical examination. Conversion to an individual life insurance policy necessitates paying the usual premium for a person of your age and class of risk. If you decide to convert, the Bureau should be immediately advised. Otherwise, SF-56, "Agency Certification of Insurance Status," will be forwarded to OPM and a copy sent to you. If you elect to continue Regular Insurance coverage, such protection will continue premium free until you reach age 65. At that time coverage will be reduced 75% (at 2% per month) by the time you reach age 68 years and 2 months. The remaining 25% is also premium free for the remainder of life. Optional Insurance of $10,000, if continued after retirement, will be at full premium cost until you reach age 65. Thereafter, it is cost free for the remainder of life and commencing at age 65 it will be reduced 75% at the same rate as Regular Insurance. The premium cost of Optional Insurance varies as to age. Optional Insurance may be continued after retirement if you continue to pay for it until age 65 provided you keep Regular Insurance. To retain the Optional Insurance requires no action, OPM will deduct the cost from your annuity. You must have had Optional Insurance for 5 years immediately before your retirement (or the date you become eligible for compensation benefits), or if less than five years, for the full period of service during which it was available to you. Optional Insurance may be converted to an individual policy if you are not eligible to continue it or, if you do not wish Optional Insurance to be continued, you may waive coverage at any time by notifying OPM and still keep your Regular Insurance. Following retirement, accidental death and dismemberment benefits no longer exist for either Regular or Optional Insurance. ☐ You elected Optional Insurance on _____ . If you desire to convert the Optional Insurance, submit in duplicate a signed statement that you want to convert the Optional Insurance to an individual policy and wish to be informed how to do it.

Note: If the annuity of an insured retired employee is terminated under any applicable law or regulation, his/her regular and/or optional life insurance coverage stops on the date of such termination, with no conversion rights thereafter.

DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARY, STANDARD FORM 54, FEDERAL EMPLOYEES' GROUP LIFE INSURANCE FILED:

- ☒ No. Beneficiary will be in order of precedence used by U.S. Government, i.e., (1) widow or widower, (2) children, (3) parents, etc.
☐ Yes; beneficiary designated as _____

This designation is being forwarded to OPM and it will remain valid unless changed or canceled. Contact OPM for any change desired following retirement.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES HEALTH BENEFITS PROGRAM

- ☐ Records show you elected not to enroll.
☒ Records show you enrolled in the following plan:
☐ Government-wide Service Benefit Plan (Blue Cross - Blue Shield)
☐ Government-wide Indemnity Benefit Plan (Aetna Life Insurance Company)
☐ Comprehensive Medical Plan
☒ Special Agents Mutual Benefit Association (SAMBA) (See information below on SAMBA Life Insurance)

Unless you cancel your present health benefits enrollment, you will remain under your health benefits plan after retirement, and your enrollment will be transferred to OPM. The cost of your share of the plan will be deducted from your annuity by OPM.

Enrollment of an employee who dies while he is enrolled "for self and family" continues for his family if at least one family member is entitled to an annuity as the survivor. If the survivor annuitant is the only eligible family member, the retirement system will automatically change the enrollment to "self only."

The original of SF 2810, "Notice of Change in Health Benefits Enrollment," will be forwarded to you by the Bureau at a later date.

SAMBA LIFE INSURANCES - The Group Life Insurance you carry under SAMBA on yourself and dependents to age 22 will continue in force until 1-1 or 7-1 coinciding with or next following the date of your retirement providing you pay the premium semi-annually. However, if premium for this coverage is withheld by payroll allotment, the life insurance ceases as of the date your separation for retirement becomes effective, with a 31-day grace period. If you desire to continue the protection beyond this time, you may do so without a physical examination on you, your spouse, and children under age 22. At age 70 you can continue amounts carried prior to age 70 up to a maximum of $10,000 on yourself and $5,000 on your spouse. You may continue the Personal Accident Insurance at the same rates and amounts until you reach age 65 on you and your spouse and unmarried dependent children under age 22. Upon attainment of age 65, you may retain present coverage up to $50,000 of the Personal Accident Insurance for yourself and your spouse until you reach age 75 with the cost being 18¢ per month per thousand. If you are enrolled under the Disability Income Protection (DIP) (Hospital Income Protection, Long Term Disability Benefit and Pension Supplement), you cannot continue this coverage unless you retire for disability. Benefits may be available under DIP for disability retirements. If you desire to convert or continue any of your present insurance coverages under SAMBA, you should, immediately or no longer than 31 days after retirement, write to SAMBA, Suite 750, 1325 G Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C. 20005. Upon retirement your premium cannot be withheld by payroll allotment and you will be billed on a semi-annual basis on January 1st and July 1st.

SPECIAL ACCIDENT AND TRAVEL INSURANCE (SATI) - The Group Life Insurance you carry under SATI on yourself and dependents to age 21 may be continued after retirement to age 55 with no change in premium or coverage. At age 55, your coverage will be reduced by 5% a year until you reach age 65 or if you retire at age 60, your coverage will be reduced by 10% a year until age 65. This coverage terminates at age 70. You may continue the Accidental Death, Dismemberment and Permanent Total Disability and the Accident Indemnification at the same rates and amounts to age 65 on you and your spouse and your unmarried dependent children from ages 1 to age 24 if residing with and wholly dependent upon you and regularly attending an accredited school or college. Upon attainment of age 65 you may only continue your present coverage of the Accidental Death and Dismemberment up to $25,000 on you and your spouse until you reach age 75 with the cost being 19¢ per month per thousand. The Accident Indemnification cannot be continued after age 65. The Accident Indemnification claims must be coordinated with any plan under the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program. If enrolled under the SATI Retirement Savings Plan, you should contact Wright & Company regarding options available to you. If you are enrolled under the Long Term Disability (LTD) (In-Hospital Income, Salary Continuation and Pension Supplement), you cannot continue this coverage unless you retire for disability. Benefits may be available under LTD for disability retirements. If you desire to convert or continue any of your present insurance coverages under SATI, you should, immediately or no longer than 31 days after retirement, write to Wright & Company, Suite 1222, 1001 Connecticut Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20036. Upon retirement your premium cannot be withheld by payroll allotment and you will be billed on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual or annual basis.

Dear Ted:

Since receiving your letter of March 6, 1979, and intervening telephone conversations, I now understand that you now intend to retire as of March 30th in order to accept a special consulting assignment from the Department of Justice.

I wish I could convey to you how sincerely I appreciate the years of dedicated service which you have given to the Bureau and especially this last year when so much depended upon the support given me by the field commanders. You have done a great deal in a personal way to enhance the justified reputation of the Bureau and I know that you will continue to give it your unswerving support.

I count on our friendship continuing in the years ahead. Warm best wishes,

Sincerely,

FPM SUPPLEMENT

INSTRUCTIONS FOR EMPLOYING OFFICES

Complete this form upon separation (and conversion to or from an appointment under the Civil Service Retirement System) to provide a cumulative record of creditable service for Civil Service retirement.

Items 1-3 Must agree with OPF-30.

11 25 AM '79

Item 4 Number statements in consecutive order.

Item 5 Use FPM Supp. 831-1, Retirement, S-3, Creditable Service, to determine the length and creditability of periods of service. All entries are to reflect verified service documented in the employee's Official Personnel Folder (OPF). If the previous civilian service or military service sections do not apply to the employee, enter "none"; do not leave blank.

Item 6 Complete only for separations and conversions from positions subject to Civil Service retirement deductions, checking the appropriate box as follows: (Only one box is to be checked).

None— Check if the employee transfers to another position subject to the Civil Service Retirement System.

Refund Only— Check if the employee fails to meet either of the two general requirements for retirement upon separation: (A) 5 years total civilian service and (B) at least one year of service subject to the Civil Service Retirement System in the two year period preceding the separation ("one of two" rule)

Deferred Annuity or Refund — Check if the employee, at separation, meets both of the general requirements for retirement but does not meet any of the sets of conditions for immediate annuity opposite.

Immediate Annuity — Check if, at separation, the employee meets both of the general requirements and any of the sets of conditions for immediate annuity shown opposite.

Minimum Age	Minimum Service (Years)	Special Requirements
62	5	None
60	20	None
55	30	None
Any age	25	Separation must be involuntary without cause or during a major reduction in force as determined by the Civil Service Commission.
50	20
Any age	5	Total disability; "one of two" rule, above, does not apply.

Item 7 Explain any difference between the amount of creditable service entered for a period of service and the calendar time represented by the "From" and "To" dates entered for the same period, i.e. Excess LWOP, Intermittent Service, or "Time Lost" during military service. Also use this section to clarify any other entries on the form. For example, if the employee had two periods of military service enter "See Remarks" and the amount of total military service in Section 5C and enter the dates of military service under Remarks.

Item 8 The employee is to review and sign the forms during the exit interview or at some other convenient time prior to actual separation. If the employee's signature is not obtained before actual separation, the employee and OPF copies of the form are to be forwarded to the employee for signature. The control copy is to be filed on the right-hand side of the employee's OPF. The material sent to the employee is to include a letter of transmittal which instructs the employee to sign and return the OPF copy and a franked envelope with the agency's return address. If the employee fails to return the OPF copy, the control copy will be retained in the personnel folder. If the OPF copy is returned or if the employee's signature is obtained before separation, the control copy may be discarded.

Items 9-11 The completed forms are to be signed by an authorized agency personnel official, including title, agency name, bureau, division, and mailing address.

NOTE: A current copy of this form is to be filed on the right-hand side of the employee's Official Personnel Folder whenever the folder is transferred between agencies or from an agency to the Federal Records Center, regardless of nature of agency, type of appointment, or reason for separation.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR EMPLOYEE

NOTICE TO RETIRING EMPLOYEE

As a retired employee, your regular life insurance (not accidental death and dismemberment) will be continued without cost to you, provided:

- You do not convert to an individual policy of life insurance; and
- You retire with 12 or more years' creditable service of which at least 5 years are civilian service, or on account of disability; and
- You retire on an immediate annuity.

Your optional life insurance, if you have any (not accidental death and dismemberment), may also be continued, provided:

- You do not convert it; and
- You continue your regular insurance; and
- You have had optional insurance from the time it first became available to you; and
- Your monthly annuity is sufficient, after all other deductions, to pay the full cost; and
- You continue to pay the full cost until you reach age 65 (the cost will be deducted from your monthly annuity check).

Your life insurance as a retired employee will be reduced by 2% each month beginning at age 65 or at retirement, whichever is later. The maximum reduction is 75%.

You may, if you prefer, convert your insurance to an individual life insurance policy in an amount not to exceed your combined regular and optional insurance. Or you may continue your regular insurance free after retirement, if eligible as described above, and convert only your optional insurance. Your employing office will instruct you on the procedure to follow if you want to convert only your optional insurance.

If you are eligible to continue your life insurance as a retired employee, your employing agency has been instructed to attach the ORIGINAL of this form to your application for retirement unless you prefer to convert your regular insurance to an individual policy.

If you receive the ORIGINAL copy of this Certification after you file your application for retirement, and you do not want to convert your regular insurance to an individual policy, forward the ORIGINAL as soon as possible to the agency or office which administers your retirement system. Keep the DUPLICATE copy for yourself. You will be notified by the Civil Service Commission of your insurance rights.

DEATH WITHIN 31 DAYS

Under certain conditions, life insurance is payable if death occurs within 31 days after an employee's group insurance terminates, even though the employee had not applied for conversion. If death occurs within this period, further information concerning possible benefits should be obtained from the agency named in item 9 above.

INSTRUCTIONS TO EMPLOYING AGENCY

COMPLETION OF CERTIFICATION

1. This Certification must be completed in triplicate whenever an employee's insurance terminates for:
 - a. Death.
 - b. Retirement on an immediate annuity with 12 or more years' creditable service, of which at least 5 years are civilian service, or on account of disability. (An immediate annuity is one which begins to accrue not later than 1 month after the date the insurance would normally cease.) In a disability retirement case, do not complete SF 56 until a finding of disability has been officially made and the employee's separation is in order.
 - c. Completion of 12 months in a non-pay status or separation, and the employee is receiving benefits under the Federal Employees' Compensation law, and held unable to return to duty.
 - d. Any other reason, if the employee desires to convert his life insurance, except under the following circumstances:
 - (1) Employee waived or declined on SF 176 (or SF 176-1);
 - (2) If it is known that, within 3 calendar days after the date the insurance terminated, the employee will return to Government service in the same or another position in which he will be eligible to reacquire Federal Employees Group Life Insurance;
 - (3) More than 75 days have elapsed from the date insurance terminated unless specific request is made therefor by the Civil Service Commission or the Office of Federal Employees Group Life Insurance.
2. If insurance terminated on account of death, indicate in item 3(a) whether the employee had filed an Application for Retirement (SF 2801) with the Civil Service Commission.
3. In item 8, give date of Notice of Conversion Privilege (SF 55), except that if this form (SF 56) is issued in lieu of SF 55, give current date. In case of death, leave this item blank.
4. It is important whenever a duplicate SF 56 is issued to replace one which has been lost, that it be clearly marked "DUPLICATE".

DISPOSITION OF CERTIFICATION

1. Death of employee—
 - a. Send duplicate of SF 56 immediately to the Office of Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance.
 - b. Keep the original (preferably in the Official Personnel Folder or its equivalent) for attachment to a claim for death benefits (Form FE 6), when received.
 - c. If no claim is received, send original SF 56, upon request, to the Office of Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance.
 - d. If the deceased employee has a current Designation of Beneficiary (SF 54) on file, the SF 54 must be attached to the original SF 56 when it is sent to the Office of Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance.
2. Retirement of employee—
 - a. If the employee is applying for an immediate annuity with 12 or more years' creditable service (of which at least 5 years are civilian service) or for disability, attach the original SF 56 and current Designation of Beneficiary (SF 54), if any, to the Application for Retirement and give duplicate of SF 56 to the employee. NOTE: In a disability retirement case where the retirement application has already been sent to the Civil Service Commission, attach the original SF 56 (and SF 54, if any) to the FINAL retirement application (SF 806).
 - b. If the employee wants to continue only his regular insurance, have him complete a SF 176 declining his optional insurance. If he wants to convert only his optional insurance, prepare a statement (see below), in duplicate, for him to sign, attach both copies of the statement to the original SF 56, and submit with application for retirement as instructed in 2a above.

Illustrative Statement

"I want to continue my regular insurance after retirement but would like additional information on converting my optional insurance."

(Employee's signature)

(Date)

- c. If the employee prefers to convert both his regular and optional insurance to an individual policy, give him the original and duplicate copy of the SF 56. Retain SF 54, if any.
3. If employee is receiving compensation benefits—
 - a. Before answering item 7 contact the local Bureau of Employees' Compensation Office, if necessary, to confirm whether the employee still has optional insurance.
 - b. Have the employee complete appropriate box on reverse side of the original SF 56. Send original SF 56 and current Designation of Beneficiary (SF 54), if any, to the U. S. CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION, BUREAU OF RETIREMENT, PENSION, AND OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH, WASHINGTON, D. C., 20415, and give duplicate copy of SF 56 to the employee.
 - c. If the employee prefers to convert his group insurance to an individual policy, give him the original and duplicate copy of the SF 56. Retain SF 54, if any.
4. All other cases—

Upon request, give the employee the original and duplicate copy of the SF 56 or mail them to him.
5. In all cases—

Retain file copy of the SF 56 in the employee's Official Personnel Folder or its equivalent.

PROMPT CERTIFICATION REQUIRED

The time in which an employee may convert his group life insurance to an individual policy is limited. This SF 56 must be completed and furnished or mailed to him promptly.

Mr. Theodore L. Gunderson
Apartment 103
4558 Willis Avenue
Sherman Oaks, California 91403

Dear Mr. Gunderson:

Public Law 95-521, "Ethics in Government Act of 1978," was passed on October 26, 1978. Title II of this Act, which requires individuals in the executive branch of government to file financial disclosure forms, took effect on January 1, 1979. Among those individuals required to file are employees who occupied, at the time of termination of employment, a position in grade GS 16 or above. Since you meet this criteria, I am enclosing two copies of the form for your use.

This report must be filed on or before the 30th day after termination of employment, provided you have not assumed another position in grade GS 16 or above within the 30-day period. Inasmuch as the forms required for filing were not received in this Bureau until April 19, 1979, the Office of Government Ethics has advised that they should be completed and filed as soon as possible.

Your report should cover calendar year 1978, as well as that portion of 1979, up to the date you retired. When completed, the form should be forwarded to the Personnel Officer, F.B.I., 9th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue N.W., Washington, D. C. 20535.

For your information, each form will be reviewed to insure compliance with applicable laws and regulations concerning conflict of interest. Fifteen days after receipt, each report will be made available to the public, together with a copy of your official position description. This Act prohibits the use of your report by anyone for any unlawful purpose, commercial purpose other than by news and communications media

Dear Chief Gates:

Many thanks for the candid remarks in your letter of April 6th concerning Ted Gunderson and the relationship between our respective offices with regard to bank robbery matters.

POLICE DEPARTMENT, CALIFORNIA

I appreciate your concern over the FBI's future role in bank robbery investigations in the Los Angeles area. As you know, the Bureau's mission is changing. Our funds are limited and our responsibilities have increased. We are currently steering our resources toward three priority matters--white-collar crimes, organized crime and foreign counterintelligence. It is estimated that banking institutions have lost three times more money from embezzlement--a white-collar crime--than from robberies. Since Congress has restored over one-half of the proposed $5.13 million reduction to our Fiscal Year 1979 budget to handle bank robbery investigations, we will be able to continue investigating these crimes in much the same manner as before; however, we must recognize the fact that we are going to have less manpower available if we are to effectively discharge our priority commitments.

I will have a copy of your letter forwarded to Mr. Herbert D. Clough, Jr., our new Special Agent in Charge in Los Angeles, and I know he will be grateful for your pledge of continued support and cooperation. Our success depends a great deal on our ability to work with you in local law enforcement and we look forward to a future of even greater accomplishments.

With every best wish,

Sincerely yours,

23 MAY 4 1979

Mr. William H. Webster
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. 20535

Dear Judge Webster:

The Los Angeles Police Department has enjoyed a unique and successful relationship with the Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Los Angeles under the able leadership of Special Agent-In-Charge Ted Gunderson. Through his efforts, the Bank Robbery Squad of the Los Angeles Division, FBI, has worked harmoniously with the Bank Detail, Robbery-Homicide Division, of the Los Angeles Police Department.

The concurrent investigative jurisdiction of the FBI and the availability of their vast resources have enabled the Los Angeles Police Department and the FBI to record a clearance rate by arrest of 80 percent over the past five years. This high clearance rate is unparalleled by any other metropolitan law enforcement agency working in concert with the FBI.

The involvement of the FBI in local investigations and their ability to connect criminals to multiple bank robberies clearly expands our investigative capabilities. In 1978 the City of Los Angeles fell victim to 307 bank robberies. Ted Gunderson recognized our continued need for the services of the FBI with bank robbery investigations.

Therefore, I sincerely request that the newly selected Special Agent-In-Charge of the Los Angeles Office be allowed to continue the present policy of maintaining a Bank Robbery Squad.

May I pledge our continued support and full cooperation with the next Special Agent-In-Charge, as well as all members of the Federal Bureau of Investigation assigned to the City of Los Angeles.

Very truly yours,

Gunderson, Theodore L.

Dear Sir:

Dear

The procedures used in the development of hearing loss claims under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act have been revised.

In the past, a claimant was required to arrange for submission of a complete and current medical report describing the nature and extent of hearing impairment. Some reports submitted under this procedure were incomplete or inconsistent, were expensive to obtain and often were submitted only after a long delay. Therefore, the OWCP has adopted new procedures for obtaining such medical evidence.

All unadjudicated hearing loss cases will now first be developed for determination concerning exposure to hazardous noise and timeliness of the claim. If exposure and timeliness are established, the claimant will then be referred to a Board Certified otolaryngologist for a complete otological and audiological evaluation at the Office's expense. Claimants will no longer be required to arrange for submission of such reports.

The Office will not pay for any unauthorized medical examinations arranged for by the claimant. A claimant does have the right to present any evidence, including reports of medical examination, in support of a claim for compensation that has been filed. The cost of any such examination, the presentation of a report of the examination and any incidental expenses will be the claimant's responsibility.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

RE: Theodore L. Gunderson

Information has been requested concerning the exposure of former Special Agent Theodore L. Gunderson to the noise of firearms. He was appointed as a Special Agent on 12/10/51 and retired on 3/30/79.

Gunderson attended New Agents' Training during the period 12/10/51 to 3/25/52, and during that period he fired the .38-caliber revolver, .45-caliber Thompson Submachine Gun, 12-gauge shotgun, .30-caliber rifle, and the Federal Gas Gun. He fired approximately 850 rounds of ammunition during the above training period.

From 3/25/52 to 3/30/79, firearms training was afforded to Gunderson and he fired approximately 16,340 rounds of ammunition of various types during that period.

Gunderson attended In-Service in 1953, 1955, 1959, 1962(2), 1967, 1974, and 1979. During this training he fired approximately 3,600 rounds of ammunition of various calibers.

It is to be noted that in 1965 every field office was equipped with ear guards for use of the firearms instructors, and all Special Agents were instructed to continue to use cotton impregnated with petroleum jelly while on the firing line.

On 6/11/74, the use of ear guards (headsets) for Special Agents was made mandatory during firearms training.

RE: NOISE LEVEL TESTS OF FBI
FIREARMS RANGES CONDUCTED BY THE FBI LABORATORY AT QUANTICO, VIRGINIA AND
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Because available guidelines to estimate the hearing damage risk associated with impulse noise, such as gunfire, differ from the Maximum Recommended Noise Exposure regulations promulgated under authority of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (Federal Register 36 (105), 10518 (May 29, 1971) definitions of measurements made as well as some detail regarding measurement conditions and equipment used are set out with the results of these measurements.

GENERAL BASIS AND DEFINITIONS
FOR MEASUREMENTS CONDUCTED

The tests conducted are based on available literature relating to hearing damage risk associated with impulse noise, such as gunfire, defined as brief noises lasting less than one second. Measurements have been made of two parameters (Peak Pressure Level and B-Duration) of the single impulse from various weapons with various ammunitions under typical and average circumstances.

These two parameters can be related to proposed damage-risk criterion for impulse noise (gunfire), Report of Working Group 57, NAS-NRC Committee on Hearing, Bioacoustics, and Biomedics (CHABA), W. C. Ward et al (July, 1968) also reported by the National Bureau of Standards in "Fundamentals of Noise: Measurement, Rating Schemes and Standards" published by U. S. Government Printing Office Publication NTID 300.15 for the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency (12-31-71). These two parameters are defined as follows:

1. The Peak Pressure Level (P) is the highest instantaneous pressure level (in decibels, Re. $2.0 \times 10^{-5} \text{ N/M}^2$) reached at any time by the impulses, measured at the position of the ear but away from the individual.
2. The Pressure-Envelope Duration or B-Duration is the total time that the envelope of the pressure fluctuations, both positive and negative, are within 20 db of the peak pressure level. Included in this time is the duration of that part of any reflection pattern that is within 20 db of the peak level.

MEASUREMENT TEST CONDITIONS AND MEASUREMENT EQUIPMENT

OUTDOOR RANGE

Measurements were conducted on the outdoor range of the FBI Academy at Quantico, Virginia, in an open field over grass. Measuring microphones were located in an orientation and at a distance from various weapons to approximate the location of the shooter's nearest ear. Weapons were fired with the shooter removing himself as far as possible from the field of the measuring microphone. Results for each weapon and type of ammunition are the average of several individual firings. Peak Pressure Levels (P) and B-Duration were measured from calibrated photographs of oscilloscope traces, and were checked against simultaneous impulse precision sound level meter measurements.

Equipment used to make these measurements includes Bruel and Kjaer (B&K) Impulse Precision Sound Level Meters type 2209, type 4136 1/4" condenser microphone associated preamplifiers and power supplies and Tektronix Model 564 Oscilloscope with C30 camera. Calibration was done with a B & K type 4220 Pistonphone.

It is felt these measurements represent typical and average sound levels and durations which would occur at the shooters' ears without ear protection for the weapons and ammunitions measured.

RESULTS OF MEASUREMENTS

Outdoor Range

The following measurement results are set out by type of weapon and ammunition and are the average of a number of firings of each. The two measurements given are P (Peak Pressure Level in decibels (db) and B (B-Duration in milliseconds):

1. Weapon: 38 caliber Smith and Wesson Special Revolver with 4-inch barrel
 - (a) Ammunition - 148 grain target load
P - 156 db B - 1.8 msec
 - (b) Ammunition - 158 grain service load
P - 157.7 db B - 1.9 msec
2. Weapon: 38 caliber Smith and Wesson Special Revolver with 2-inch barrel
 - (a) Ammunition - 148 grain target load
P - 159.2 db B - 1.6 msec

3. Weapon: Model 870 Remington Shotgun

- (a) Ammunition - Skeet load
P - 160.8 db B - 2.9 msec
- (b) Ammunition - 00 buck shot
P - 160.3 db B - 3.6 msec
- (c) Ammunition - rifle slug maximum load
P - 159.5 db B - 6.3 msec

4. Weapon: .308 Remington Carbine Rifle with 150 grain ammunition

- (a) Open area over grass
P - 159.6 db B - 2.8 msec
- (b) On Rifle Deck
P - 158.3 db B - 5.4 msec

MEASUREMENT TEST CONDITIONS

INDOOR RANGE

Measurements were conducted on the indoor range at FBI Headquarters located in the basement of the Justice Department Building, Washington, D. C. Measurement microphones were located in an orientation and at a distance from the gun to approximate the location of the shooter's nearest ear. The gun was fired at one of the center shooter positions with the shooter removing himself as far as possible from the field of the measuring microphones and with the protective plexiglass screens closed behind the shooter. Results for each type of ammunition are the average of several individual firings. Peak Pressure Levels (P) and B-Durations were measured from calibrated photographs of oscilloscope traces and were checked against simultaneous impulse precision sound level measurements.

Indoor Range

The following measurement results are for a 38 caliber Smith and Wesson Special Revolver with 4-inch barrel and are felt to represent typical and average sound levels and durations which would occur at the shooter's ears without ear protection on the indoor range. The two measurements given are P (Peak Pressure Level) and B (B-duration in milliseconds):

- 1. Ammunition: 148 grain target load
P - 154.4 db B - 23.7 msec
- 2. Ammunition: 158 grain service load
P - 156.9 db B - 23 msec

To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Theodore L. Gunderson
File #A25-156216

Set forth herein are answers to questions 4, 5, 6, and 7 as requested by the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP) per Letter CA-1081 (Rev. June, 1975) dated June 25, 1979.

4. Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) receive triennial government physical examinations up to age 33 and annually thereafter. Since 1962, audiometer tests have been a part of the physical examinations when necessary equipment has been available. Frequently, when audiometer tests show hearing losses, the losses are noted by the examining physician. Special Agents are required to initial the physical examination papers thus constituting an FBI procedure for notifying a Special Agent when he has a hearing loss.

5. On the following indicated dates all Special Agents in Charge were advised in writing of the respective instructions which they were to impart to Special Agents assigned to their office:

May 4, 1954

TRAINING - FIREARMS -- The Bureau desires again to call to the attention of all investigative personnel the necessity of taking precautions to prevent injuries causing impairment of hearing while engaged in firearms training. SACs shall require that all Agents engaging in firearms training use cotton or ear plugs in the ears to prevent injury caused by gun blast. This applies not only to the Agents actually firing but also to those who may be coaching, observing, or otherwise in close proximity to the shooter. These instructions apply to both indoor and outdoor firearms training and to demonstration given by firearms instructors.

Re: Theodore L. Gunderson
File #A25-156216

August 20, 1957

TRAINING - FIREARMS - PROTECTION OF HEARING -- The Bureau desires again to emphasize existing instructions concerning the use of cotton, ear plugs or other protective devices during the course of firearms training. The primary purpose of using such protection is to break the initial shock of the gun blast and prevent it from causing injury which could result in hearing impairment. Advice has been received as regards the use of cotton that it is more effective if it is dampened slightly. The type of protective measure used will be left to the choice of the individual but some such precaution must be used at all times during firearms training not only by the shooter but by coaches, observers, instructors or other individuals in the near vicinity of the shooting.

June 17, 1958

PROTECTION AGAINST HEARING LOSS FROM FIREARMS TRAINING -- A study has been conducted to see if additional protection against hearing loss can be afforded during firearms training. This study was occasioned by the increased number of hearing loss claims being submitted by Agents who based such claims on excessive noise to which they were exposed during firearms training. Studies to date reflect that dry cotton in the ear canals affords insufficient protection. You should immediately make a supply of cotton and Vaseline available so that cotton impregnated with Vaseline may be used during all firearms training periods. By placing Vaseline on the cotton prior to inserting it in the ear canal a much greater degree of protection is afforded against possible hearing damage. You should insure that all Agents are advised of the availability of the Vaseline and cotton and all participating Agents make use of them.

September 10, 1965

FIREARMS TRAINING - EARMUFFS -- Every field office has been supplied with earmuffs for the use of the firearms instructors in conducting training for your office and in police firearms training schools. These ear protectors are not to be placed on your nonexpendable inventory but each SAC will be held accountable for their proper availability and use. Special Agents receiving firearms training will continue to use cotton impregnated with petroleum jelly while on the firing line.

June 11, 1974

MANDATORY USE OF PROTECTIVE HEADSETS DURING FIREARMS TRAINING -- Effective immediately, the use of protective headsets for all Special Agents during firearms training is mandatory. Each Special Agent in Charge is to insure these protective hearing devices are being used and that a sufficient number are available in his respective field office. If needed, additional protective headsets should be requisitioned through the Training Division.

6. Pertaining specifically to Mr. Gunderson, the first audiometer test given him at the time of his annual physical examination was on January 27, 1953. The examining report, January 3, 1973, advised Mr. Gunderson had a slight increase in the high frequency acuity, left ear, compared to the previous examinations. This was noted after his July, 1972 exposure to jet engines as #9 of the CA-4 previously advised. The consult examination, March 2, 1978, advised periodic tinnitus. The examining physician noted a moderate high frequency loss probably due to noise exposure on the physical report, March 12, 1979. The Bureau requested a signed statement regarding the wearing of ear protector's on the firing range, February 15, 1973. A copy of Mr. Gunderson's statement is attached.

7. The last date of exposure to firearms for Mr. Gunderson was March 22, 1979. At that time his pay rate was $47,500 per annum.

Mr. Theodore L. Gunderson entered on duty in the Federal Bureau of Investigation December 10, 1951, as a Special Agent, Grade GS 10, $5500 per annum. Following a period of training, he performed investigative and supervisory duties and the duties of an Assistant Special Agent in Charge and Special Agent in Charge. During his employment with this Bureau, he was assigned to our Mobile, Knoxville, New York City, Albuquerque, New Haven, Philadelphia, Memphis, Dallas and Los Angeles Offices and Headquarters, Washington, D. C. Effective March 30, 1979, he retired in view of Section 8336 (c) 5 USC of the Civil Service Retirement Act. At that time, he occupied the position of Supervisory Special Agent, with a salary of $47,500 per annum in Grade GS 18.

As an occupant of the position of Special Agent, he was charged with the duty of investigating violations of the laws of the United States, collecting evidence in cases in which the United States is or may be a party in interest and performed other duties imposed by law. In discharging these duties it is essential that a Special Agent be physically qualified for strenuous duties including the required hearing standards. Special Agents participate in raids, arrests and the use of firearms, which are among the important duties of such position.
